6. And Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa.

7. And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias.

8. And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezechias.

9. And Ezechias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias.

10. And Josias begat Jeronias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

11. And after they were brought to Babylon, Jeronias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Josababel.

12. And Josababel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor.

13. And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud.

14. And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob.

15. And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

16. So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon until Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Marie was espoused to Joseph (before they came together) she was found with child of the holy Ghost.

19 When Joseph her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appears unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph thou sonne of David feare not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sinnes.

22 ¶ Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a sonne, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born sonne; and he called his name Jesus.

CHAP. II.

1 The wise men out of the east, are directed to Christ by a starre. 11 They worship him, and offer him presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Mary and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children. 20 Himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea, in the days of Heron the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his starre in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Heron the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and Scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophets,

6. And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule the people of Israel.

CHAP. III.

1 John preacheth: his office, life, and baptisms. 2 He reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

3 In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea.

4 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

5 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Malai, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

6 And the Jews that were of Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan, 7 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

8 And when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

9 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.

10 And think not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

11 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

12 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

13 And whose fanne is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

14 And John cometh, Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

15 But John would not suffer him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

16 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. When he suffered him.

17 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

18 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ saith, and is tempted. 13 The angels minister unto him, 17 He dwelleth in Capernaum, 17 beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter and Andrew, 21 James and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

1 Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thy self down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them:

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

 12 And when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.
 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthali.
 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 To by land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthali, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:
 16 The people which sat in darkness, saw great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.
 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
 18 And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers) 19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
 20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.
 21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them.
 22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.
 23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.
 24 And his fame went throughout all Syria:
 and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases, and torments, and they which were possessed with devils, and they which were lunatick, and they which had the palsy, and he healed them.
 25 And there followed him great multitudes of people, from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Iden, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ becometh his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill, 19 the commandment which shall fulfill the law, 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.
 1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was sat, his disciples came unto him.
 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for they shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.
 4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
 5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
 9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.
 10 Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness sake: for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.
 11 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you, lying for my sake.
 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
 13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.
 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill, cannot be hid.
 15 Neither can ye light a candle, and put it under a bushel: but on a candlestick, and it shall light up all that are in the house.
 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
 17 I think not that I am come to fulfill the law of the prophets: I am not come to fulfill but to fulfill.
 18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.
 19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
 20 For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.
 21 Ye have heard, that it was said, by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgement.
 22 But I say unto you, Whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Racha: shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.
 23 Therefore, if thou bring the gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee, 24 Leave there the gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
 25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him: lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.
 26 Verily, I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.
 27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery.
 28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
 29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is said, whosoever shall look on a woman to lust after her, do commit adultery with her already in his heart.
 30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is said, whosoever shall touch a woman, to lust after her, shall be guilty of adultery with her already in his heart.

12 But I say unto you, that whosoever shall thus love his neighbor, as himself, he shall be counted perfect in the law.

13 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thy self, but shall perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

14 But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is Gods throne:

15 Nor by the earth, for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

16 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

17 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for what is more than these, to man is owed.

18 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

19 But I say unto you, that ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

20 And if any man will smite thee at the left, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

21 And whosoever shall compell thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

22 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou away.

23 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy.

24 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you:

25 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven, for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

26 ¶ For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the Publicanes the same?

27 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Publicanes so?

28 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAP. VI.

¶ Christ continueth his sermon on the mount, speaking of almes, & prayers, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God and man: 25 exhorteth, not to be careful for worldly things; 33 but to seek Gods kingdom.

Take heed that ye do not your almes before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine almes, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, lest thou shalt be counted a hypocrite, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Clearly, I say unto you, they have their reward.

3 But when thou doest almes, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 And thine almes may be in secret, and thy Father which is in heaven, shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites, who stand up to pray standing in the synagogues, & in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Clearly, I say unto you, they have their reward.

6 But thou when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut the door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them; for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 ¶ For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Clearly, I say unto you, they have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face:

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.

20 ¶ But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 ¶ The light of the body is the eye: if there fore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: is not the life more than meat, and the body more than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 And which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

10v. with.
Rom. 12. 8.
He could not be counted
a hypocrite.

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin.

29 And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God do clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or where will we have to dwell?

32 For after all these things do the Gentiles seek: for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself: it is sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ ending his sermon in the mount, reproveth rash judgement, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 not to be deceived, but doers of the work, 24 like houses builded on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, & many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 Before of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravaging wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 And they say unto me, Lord, Lord, shall we not be saved in thy name? but ye that do the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils, and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me ye that work iniquity.

24 Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house: and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand.

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house: and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to passe when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were all amazed at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the Scribes.

When he was come down from the mount, great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, there came a leper and knickpinned him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus said unto him, See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him.

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus said unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having 22 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

23 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee: and his servant was healed in the self same hour.

24 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Bethsaida, he said to his lovers mother and brethren, and said, Behold.

25 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and ministered unto them.

26 ¶ And when the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick.

27 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¶ When it took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

28 And when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

29 ¶ And a certain of the scribes said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou wilt.

30 And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

31 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

32 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.

33 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

34 ¶ And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

35 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

36 And he said unto them, Awake ye, fearful men, have ye little faith? Then he arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

37 Then the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

38 ¶ And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Chanaanites, there met him two possessed with devils, crying out, saying, ¶ We beseech thee, Lord, that thou wilt not torment us.

39 And he said unto them, Go ye, and say unto your brethren, that they will come in, that they may hear, and that they may be healed.

40 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine, feeding.

41 So the devils brought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

42 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine can violently rush down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the instant.

43 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

44 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: & when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their country.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew from the reign of iniquity, 10 eateth with Publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus daughter, 27 driveth forth two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 36 and bath compassions on the multitude.

1 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 ¶ And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer, thy sinnes be forgiven thee.

3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said, But hereafter ye will say in your hearts.

5 For whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee? or to say, Arise and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sinnes, (then said he to the sick of the palsy) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many Publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why do ye also eat and drink with Publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples at Bethsaida, saying, ¶ Why do ye not and the Pharisees fast oft, but the disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the dayes will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 ¶ No man putteth a piece of new cloth into an old garment: for that which is new will take of the old, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, & the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

CHAP. XI.

John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christs testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness, and unrepentance of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Fathers wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple, 28 he collecteth to him all such as feel the burden of their sinnes.

And it came to passe, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, And saith unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

3 Jesus answered and saith unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye have heard and seen:

4 The blinde receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf heare, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

5 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

6 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitude concerning John, that went ye out into the wilderness to see? I need spoken with the winds?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? behold, they that wear soft clothing, are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea I say unto you, and more then a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, * Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare the way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater then John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven, is greater then he.

12 * And from the dayes of John the Baptist, untill now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied untill John.

14 And if ye will receive him, this is Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

16 * But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketes, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Sonne of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bubler, a friend of Publicanes and sinners: but wisdom is justified of her children.

20 * * Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

21 And unto thee Chorazin, to thee Bethsaida: for the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgement, then for you.

23 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained untill this day.

24 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgement, then for thee.

25 * * At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 * All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Sonne but the Father: neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Sonne, & he to whomsoever the Sonne will reveal him.

28 * * Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall finde rest unto your souls.

30 * For my yoke is easie, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

² Christ reproacheth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 3 by Ierusalem, 9 by reason, 11 and by a miracle. 23 He healeth the man possessed that was blinde and dumbe, 31 Blaspheemy against the holy Ghost shall never be forgiven, 36 Ierusalem shall be made of idle words, 38 He rebuketh the unfaithfull who seek after a signe, 40 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

⁴ At that time * Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the eares of corn, and to eat.

⁵ But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawfull to do upon the sabbath-day.

⁶ But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him, ⁷ How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shew-bread, which was not lawfull for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but onely for the priests?

⁸ * I have ye not read in the * law, how that on the sabbath-dayes the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blamelesse?

⁹ But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater then the temple.

¹⁰ But if ye had known what this meaneth, * I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltlesse.

¹¹ For the Sonne of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

¹² And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagoge.

¹³ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered: and they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heal on the sabbath-dayes: that they might accuse him.

¹⁴ And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

¹⁵ How much then is a man better then a sheepe? wherefore it is lawfull to do well on the sabbath-dayes.

¹⁶ Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

¹⁷ * When the Pharisees went out, and helein a counsell against him, how they might destroy him.

¹⁸ But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew to himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.

¹⁹ And charged them that they should not make him known:

²⁰ What it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

²¹ * Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgement to the Gentiles.

²² He shall not strive, nor cry, neither shall any man heare his voice in the streets.

²³ A hindered reed shall he not move, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgement unto victory.

²⁴ And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

²⁵ * When he had brought them into a village, which a blind manne and dumbe was heeard him, intreated that the blinde and dumbe would heare and see.

²⁶ And all the people were amazed, and said, Is this the sonne of David?

²⁷ But when the Pharisees saw it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

²⁹ And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself: how shall then the kingdom stand?

³⁰ And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

³¹ But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

³² Or else how can I say unto you, All manner of sinne and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

³⁴ Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

³⁵ O generation of hypocrites, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

³⁶ A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

³⁷ But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement.

³⁸ For by the words thou shalt be justified, and by the words thou shalt be condemned.

³⁹ * Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a signe from thee.

⁴¹ For as Jonas was three dayes and three nights in the whales belly: so shall the Sonne of man be three dayes and three nights in the heart of the earth.

⁴² The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgement with this generation, and they shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and behold, a greater then Jonas is here.

⁴³ The queen of the South shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and she shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to heare the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, a greater then Solomon is here.

⁴⁴ * When he had said these things, he went out, and departed into a village, where he sat down, and many came to him.

⁴⁵ And he said, I will tell you many things, from whence I came out: and when he is come he shall say, Where, and when.

⁴⁶ Then shall he, and thirty with him, come upon this city, and shall overthrow it, and shall lay it waste, and shall build it again, and shall say, Where, and when.

⁴⁷ And he shall say, Where, and when.

⁴⁸ And he shall say, Where, and when.

⁴⁹ And he shall say, Where, and when.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The parable of the sower and the seed: 18 the exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the draw-net cast into the sea, 53 and how Christ is commended of his own countrymen.

The same day went Jesus out of the house, * and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, * Behold, a sower went forth to sow.

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the ways side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sunne was up, they were scorched, and because they had not root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.

9 ¶ Who hath eares to hear let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, What speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 ¶ He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 ¶ For whosoever shall do to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever shall not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 ¶ Wherefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophesie of E. saias, which saith, * By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive.

15 ¶ For this peoples heart is waxed gross, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their eares, and should understand, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your eares, for they hear.

17 ¶ For verily I say unto you, * that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 ¶ When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart: this is he which receiveth seed by the way side.

20 But he that receiveth the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 ¶ He also that receiveth seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that receiveth seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it: which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, dost not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 ¶ He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 ¶ He said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and binde them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, * The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field.

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree: so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 ¶ Another things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, * I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 ¶ When Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house, and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answers and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed, is the Sonne of man :

38 The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdom: but the tares are the children of the wicked one :

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil: the harvest is the end of the world: and the reapers are the angels.

40 So therefore the tares are gathered and burnt in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Sonne of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 When shall the righteous shine forth as the sunne, in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field: the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man seeking goodly pearls :

46 Who when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kinde.

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just :

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 ¶ And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 ¶ Is not this the carpenters sonne? is not his mother called Mary? his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, ¶ A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Herods opinion of Christ. 3 Wherefore John Baptist was beheaded. 13 Jesus departeth into a desert place: 15 where he feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 22 He walketh on the sea to his disciples: 34 and landing at Genesareth, healeth the sick by the touch of his hemme of his garment.

At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his chamberlaine, This is John Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and these sayes mighty works he doo: then sayth himselfe thus in his minde.

3 ¶ For Herod had said hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philipps wife.

4 For John said unto him, ¶ It is not lawfull for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herods birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist his head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oaths sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and begaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damzell: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ And when Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitude away.

23 ¶ And when he had sent the multitude away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a specter, and they cried out for fear.

29 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord save me.

30 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

31 And when they were come into the ship, the winds ceased.

32 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

33 And when they were gone away, they came into the land of Genesareth.

34 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased.

35 And he taught him, that they might only touch the hem of his garment; and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and he that cursed father or mother, let him be accursed.

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entered in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands, defileth not a man.

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coast of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David, my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent, but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth Lord, yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee, and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet, and he healed them:

31 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the lame to walk, the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him, Where should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? and they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets full.

38 And they that ate, were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took up, and came into the coast of Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a signe. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The peoples opinion of Christ. 16 and Peters confession of him. 21 Jesus foretelleth his death. 23 reproveing Peter for dissuading him from it. 24 And admonisheth thos that will follow him to bear the crosse.

*Mark 8.17.
Luk. 12.54.

The Pharisees also with the Sadducees, came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a signe from heaven:

2 He answered and said unto them, when it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foule weather: for the skie is red and lowering. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, but can ye not discern the signes of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a signe, and there shall no signe be given unto it, but the signe of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among your selves, because ye have brought no bread?

*Chap. 14.17.

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the foure thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 And he saith, ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he had said them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, & of the Sadducees.

13 & when Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say, that I the Sonne of man, am?

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 & From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it farre from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, What doest thou? thou art an offence unto me: for thou hast not said the things that be of God, but that that be of men.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lunatick. 23 foretelleth his own passion. 24 and payeth tribute.

After six dayes Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into an high mountain apart.

Luk. 9.28.

2 And was transfigured before them, and his face did shine as the sunne, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud which said, This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased: heare ye him.

*2. Pet. 1.17.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were dead afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus onely.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Sonne of man be risen againe from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

*Chap. 17.24.
Mark 9.13.

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they know him not, but have killed him: whosoever therefore the lieth, he will likewise kill the Sonne of man in like manner.

13 Then the disciples remembered that he had said unto them of John the Baptist.

14 & And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,

*Mark 9.18.
Luk. 9.14.

15 Lord, have mercy on my sonne: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft times he hath fallen into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with thee, and yet thou wilt not believe?

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the chiefe was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, why couldst thou not cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove: and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Sonne of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again: and they were exceeding loze.

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute-money, came to Peter, and said, Dost thou not make pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custome, or tribute, of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Whereupon standing, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde in a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmlesse, 7 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little one: 15 teacheth how we are to deal with our brethren, when they offend us, 21 and how oft to forgive them: 23 which he setteth forth by a parable of the king, that took account of his servants, 32 and punished him who shewed no mercy to his fellow.

¶ The same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little childe unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Clerely I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little childe, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little childe in my name, receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come: but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh.

8 ¶ And whosoever shall offend the hand or the foot, or the eye, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life, halt or maimed, rather then having thow hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather then having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do alwayes behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 ¶ For the Sonne of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 ¶ How thinkest thou a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, wold he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he finde it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, then of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Whosoever, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall heare thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not heare thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to heare them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to heare the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man, and a publicane.

18 Clerely I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall binde on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, & said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sinne against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ There is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But so much as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, & worshipped him, saying, Lord have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which ought him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, done, they were very sorry, and said and do unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had eaten, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorce: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God: 27 and promiseth reward to those that forsake any thing, to follow him.

Mark 10, 7. AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea, beyond Jordan:

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh.

6 And here say they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you so put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away, doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mothers in the womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men; and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heavens sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them:

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And he said unto him, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness.

17 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

18 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee, what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me in this regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my names sake, shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But many that are first, shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

Christ by the similitude of the labourers in the vineyard, sheweth that God is debtor unto no man, 17 foretelleth his passion, 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee children, teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 30 and giveth two blinde men their sight.

EN the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place.

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went thitherway.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing there, and said unto them, why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and I will hire you, and ye shall be as the others, and I will give you the same.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard said unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house, 12 Saying, This last I have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us which have borne the burden and heat of the day?

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way. I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 As it is not lawful for me to do what I will, lest mine should be taken away from me, because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests, and unto the Scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ When came to him the mother of Zebedee children, with her two sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, That thou shalt let these my two sons sit with me at thy right hand, and at thy left in the kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptised with the baptism that I am baptised with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall sit indeed of my cup, and be baptised with the baptism that I am baptised with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were wroth with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister.

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.

28 ¶ When as the Son of man shall sit upon the throne of his Father, he will sit upon twelve seats, to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 ¶ And as he departed from Jerusalem, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What wilt ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig-tree, 21 purseth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sonnes, 35 and the husbandmen, who slew such as were sent unto them.

¶ And when they were nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethpage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 ¶ Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy king cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them.

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way, others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, What is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrowed the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves.

13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the Pharisees and the scribes came to him in the temple, and he taught them.

15 And when the chief priests and Scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Blessed is the Son of David: they were offended.

16 And said unto him, Denest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; but ye never read, ¶ Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany, and he lodged there.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think you? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go sir, and went not.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants in to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all, he sent unto them his sonne, saying, They will reverence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the sonne, they said among themselves, This is the heir, they said among themselves, This is the heir, let us kill him, that he may inherit all.

*Chap. 26. 3. John 8. 53. 39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 And when the Lord thereof of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Yea, ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone, he shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage of the kings sonne. 2 The vocation of the Gentiles. 3 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding garment. 4 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 5 Christ confuteth the Sadducees for the resurrection. 6 Answereth the lawyers, which is the first and great commandment. 7 And rejecteth the Pharisees about the Messias.

And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his sonne.

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their cite.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the high-ways, and as many as ye shall finde, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high-ways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

15. ¶ When went the Pharisees, and they could not say any thing in answer to his tale.
16. And they went out and told their disciples, saying the Pharisees, saying, Pharisee, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the opinion of men.
17. Tell us therefore, what thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?
18. But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, What tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
19. Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.
20. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?
21. They say unto him, Cæsars. Then saith he unto them, Remember therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cæsars: and unto God, the things that are Gods.
22. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.
23. ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him.
24. Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up for him a son and his brother.
25. Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.
26. Likewise the second also, and the third, until the seventh.
27. And last of all the woman died also.
28. Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.
29. Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do erre, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.
30. For in the resurrection they neither marrie, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels of God in heaven.
31. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32. I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.
33. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.
34. ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had said the Sadducees to silence, they gathered together.
35. And one of them which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36. Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
37. Jesus said unto him, ¶ Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.
38. This is the first and great commandment.
39. And the second is like unto it, ¶ Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.
40. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
41. ¶ And all the Pharisees were gathered together. Jesus asked them, 42. Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose sonne is he? They say unto him, The sonne of David.
43. He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

19. ¶ When then tell him this, what is he his sonne?

20. And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man (from that day forth) ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

¶ Christ admonisheth the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples of the Scribes and Pharisees. 5 His disciples must beware of their ambition. 13 He denounceth eight woes against their hypocrisie and blindness: 24 and prophes-sieth of the destruction of Jerusalem.

¶ When spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples.

2. Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses seat.

3. All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4. ¶ For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on mens shoulders, but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5. But all these things they do, for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6. And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7. And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8. ¶ But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

9. And call no man your father upon the earth:
for one is your Father which is in heaven.

10. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even Christ.

11. But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

12. ¶ And whosoever shall exalt himself, shall be abased: and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.

13. ¶ ¶ But I say unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your selues, neither suffer ye them that are entering, to go in.

14. And I say unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye denounce widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers; therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15. And I say unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell then your selves.

16. And I say unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a defacer.

17. Foolish and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18. And whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is a defacer.

19. Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20. And he that shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21. And he that shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22. And he that shall swear by heaven, swear-thereon.

28 Even to ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocritic and iniquity.

29 Who unto youcribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because ye build the tombes of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the dayes of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherfore ye be witness unto your selves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Pe serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 And he saith to them, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucifie, and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from citie to citie:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous bloods shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, sonne of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Certainly I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not.

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Christ foretoldeth the destruction of the temple: 3 When and how great calamities shall be before it. 39 The signes of his coming in his name. 43 And because that day and houre is unknown, 44 we ought to watch like good servants, expecting every moment our masters coming.

Mark 13: 1. Luke 21: 5. And Jesus went out and departed from the temple; and his disciples came to him for to shew him the building of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of warres, and rumours of warres: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, & kingdome against kingdome, and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorowes.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my names sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdome shall be preached in all the world, to a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)

16 Then let them which be in Judea, flee into the mountains.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down, to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his clothes.

19 And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day.

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elects sake, those dayes shall be shortened.

23 When of any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there, believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signes and wonders, insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherfore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those dayes, shall the sunne be darkened, and the moon shall not give light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heaven, and then shall all the tribes of the earth weep, and they shall see the Sonne of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

32 And he shall send his angels 1 with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

33 How learn a parable of the fig-tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh.

34 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

35 Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass, all all these things be fulfilled.

36 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

37 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

38 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

39 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 40 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

41 Then shall two be in the field, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Two women shall be grinding at the mill, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

43 Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

44 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

45 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh.

46 And then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season.

47 Blessed is that servant whom his Lord when he cometh, shall find so doing.

48 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

49 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming,

50 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

51 The Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not ware of.

52 And shall he cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall he weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the servants, 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

1 When shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; so went to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins awoke, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil, for our lamps are going out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us, but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour, wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods:

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time, the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And to him that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou hast delivered unto me five talents, behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou hast delivered unto me two talents, behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: thou hast said that I should be sowing, and I have not sown, and I have not gathered.

26 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine one with usury.

27 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

28 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away, even that which he hath.

29 And call ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

30 And call ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

32 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

33 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

34 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

35 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

36 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

37 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

38 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

48 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

49 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

50 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

51 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

52 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

53 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

54 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

55 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

56 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

57 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

58 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

59 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

60 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

61 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

62 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

63 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

64 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

65 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

66 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

67 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

68 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

69 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

77 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

78 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

79 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

80 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

81 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

82 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

83 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

84 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

85 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

86 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

87 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

88 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

89 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

90 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

91 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

92 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

93 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

94 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

95 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

96 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

97 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

98 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

99 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

100 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

101 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

102 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

103 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

104 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

105 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

106 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

107 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

108 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

109 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

110 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

169 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

170 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

171 Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour, when the Son of man cometh.

31 E When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he be upon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats.

33 And he shall set them on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 And he will say unto them, I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink:

39 And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And he will answer, and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, in as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or a thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, in as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAP. XXVI.

The ruler conspiring against Christ. 5 The women anoint his feet. 14 Judas sells him. 17 Christ eats the paffover: 26 institutes his holy supper: 36 prophesies the passion: 47 and being betrayed with a kiss, 59 is carried to Calvary, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

1 I know that after two days ye will be eating the paffover, and the Son of man will be betrayed to be crucified.

2 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.

3 And consulted that they might kill Jesus by subtlety, and not by force.

4 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

5 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

6 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

7 But when his disciples saw this, they began to murmur, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

8 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

9 And when Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Can ye receive ye the intention of the lady wrought a good work upon me?

10 For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

11 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my buriall.

12 Verily I say unto you, whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, where shall also this that this woman hath done, be told for a memoriall of her.

13 E Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 14 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you: and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

15 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

16 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Can here will thou that we prepare for thee to eat the paffover?

17 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The master saith, My time is at hand, I will keep the paffover at the house with my disciples.

18 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the paffover.

19 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

20 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

21 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, I am not.

22 And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

23 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man, if he had not been born.

24 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered, and said, Rabbi, I am not.

25 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Eat, this is my body.

26 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it.

27 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sinnes.

28 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

29 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

30 Then said Jesus unto them, And ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

31 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

32 Whosoever shall deny me, and shall not abide with me in this night, the same shall be denied of me, and shall have his part in that which he hath said.

33 And ye shall stand before the Son of man, which shall sit on the right hand of the Father.

34 Peter answered and said unto him, Lord, though I should deny thee three times, yet will I abide with thee, because thou hast said, I will rise again.

35 And he said unto him, Thou shalt deny me thrice, before the cock croweth the third time.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowfull, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and said unto Peter, What, couldst thou not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not passe away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Sonne of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail Master, and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

where the Scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afarre off, unto the high priests palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death.

60 But found none; yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, * I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three dayes.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them, for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

* Mar. 15. 1

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ ¶ When Judas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? let them so that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, * and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for us to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in.

8 And therefore that field was called, * The field of blood unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, * And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value:

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 When said Pilate unto him, Hearst thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 * Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 * But the chief priests & elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 ¶ The governor answered and said unto them, Whichever of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate said unto them, What will I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 ¶ Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ When he released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 * ¶ When the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers, 28 And they stripped him; and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail king of the Jews.

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifix him.

32 * And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 * And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, * They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there:

37 And set up over his head, his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 ¶ Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, save thyself: if thou be the Sonne of God, come down from the crosse.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the Scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the crosse, and we will believe him.

43 ¶ He trusted in God, let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Sonne of God.

44 The thieves also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ¶ Now from the sixth houre there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth houre.

46 And about the ninth houre Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani, that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, * and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent.

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints which slept, arose.

53 And came out of the graves, and entered into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MARK.

CHAP. I.

1 The office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptised, 12 tempted: 14 he preacheth: 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James and John: 23 healeth one that had a devil, 29 Peter's mother in law, 32 many diseased persons: 41 and cleanseth the leper.

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sinnes.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Ierusalem: and were all baptized of him in the river of Iordan, confessing their finnes.

6 And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loynes: and he did eat locusts and wilde honey.

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down & unloose.

8 I have seen him, and I have written what I saw: but he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost.

9 And he came to baptize in those dayes, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of him in Iordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my belov'd Sonne, in whom I am well pleas'd.

12 And immediately the Spirit moved him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty dayes, eating of shew-bread, and was with the wilde beasts, and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God.

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye and be-leave the gospel.

16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to becom fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum, and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy one of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon, and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's mother-in-law lay sick of a fever: and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand and lift her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sunne did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the cite was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and refused not the people to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and said unto him, I will, be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he strictly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And said unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for the cleansing, as things are commanded.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ healeth one sick of the palse, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custome, 15 eateth with Publicanes and sinners, 18 censures his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the eares of corn on the sabbath-day.

* Matt. 9. 1.

AND again * he entred into Capernaum, after some dayes, and it was notified that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, nor so much as about the doore: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they came unto him, bringing one sick of the palse, which was borne of foure.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for people, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palse lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palse, Sonne, thy sinnes be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth thus man thus speak blasphemies: * who can forgive sinnes but God onely?

* Job 14. 4. Ma. 13. 35.

8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit, that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, * Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palse, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee: or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath power on earth to forgive sinnes, (he said to the sick of the palse)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side, and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

* Matt. 9. 9. Or, at the place where the custome was received.

14 * And as he passed by, he saw Levi the sonne of Alphens sitting at the receipt of custome, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to passe, that as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many Publicanes and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with Publicanes and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with Publicanes and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he said unto them, They that are whole, have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

* Matt. 9. 14. Luke 5. 13.

18 * And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees used to say, and they come, and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up, taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

|| Or, raw, or unwrought.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 * And it came to passe, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day, and his disciples began as they went, to pluck the eares of corn.

* Matt. 12. 1.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-day that which is not lawfull?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need and was an hungered, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, which is not lawfull to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Sonne of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand, 10. and many other infirmities: 11 rebuketh the scribes and pharisees: 13 censureth his twelve apostles: 22 convinceth the blasphemie of casting out devils by Beelzebub: 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother.

AND * he entred again into the synagogue, * and there was a man there which had a withered hand. * Matt. 12. 9.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day, that they might accuse him.

3 And he said unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he said unto them, Is it lawfull to do good on the sabbath-days, or to do evil to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Tynna, 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

Blasphemy against the holy Ghost. Chap. iiii. The parable of the tares.

10, rushed. 10 For he had broken many, inasmuch that they spewed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly charged them, that they should not make him known.

13 And he went up into a mountain, and called unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach:

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.

16 And Simon he surnamed Peter.

17 And James the sonne of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sonnes of thunder.

18 And Andrew, and Phillip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Cananite.

19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into a house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his disciples heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him, for they said, He is beside himself.

22 And the Scribes which came down from Jerusalem, said, We have heard of thee, and by the prince of the devils thou dost cast out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables: How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against it self, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against it self, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, All finnes shall be forgiven unto the finnes of men, and blasphemies wherewithsoever they shall blaspheme.

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the holy Ghost, hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 Where came then his brethren and his mother, and standing without, call unto him.

32 And the multitude sae about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, What is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat round him, and said, Behold my mother, and my brethren.

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. III.

1 The parable of the tares, 14 and the meaning thereof.

21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 30 The parable of the seed growing secretly.

30 Of the mustard seed, 35 Christ hidden the deepest in the sea.

And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the multitude multitude stood by the sea, on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the aire came, and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sunne was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their finnes should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will you know all parables?

14 The sower sowed the seed.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the seed is sown, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and catcheth away the seed that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: after which when affliction, or persecution cometh for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground, such as heare the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 And he said unto them, As a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed, and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have eares to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: what soever ye shall hear, it shall be ministered to you: and unto you that shall shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that doth not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

25 14 4 and

and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground, 27 And should sleep, and sit up night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her self, first the blade, then the ear, after that the full come in the ear.

807, ripe.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

* Matt. 13.

30 And he said, * Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sown it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

* Matt. 13.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them as they were able to hear it.

34.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

* Matt. 8, 23.

35 And the same day when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us passe over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship; and there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the winds, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still: and the winds ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that you have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

CHAP. V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of devils; 23 they enter into the swine: 29 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue; 35 and raised from death Jairus' his daughter.

* Matt. 8, 28.

1 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tomb, a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs, & no man could binde him, no nor with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afarre off, he came and worshipped him.

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What hast thou to do with me, Jesus, thou Sonne of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine, and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right minde, and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman which had an issue of blood twelve yeares,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up: and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself, that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing 33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran a foot together out of all cities, and overtook them, and came together unto him.

* Matt. 9. 36.

34 * And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 * And when the day was now farre spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is farre passed, 36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

¶ The Roman penny is seven pence half-penny, as Matt. 18. 28.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred penny-worth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they know, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to let before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

¶ Or, over against Bethsaida.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

* Matt. 14.

47 * And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toying in rowing: (for the winds was contrary unto them) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out.

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled) And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheare, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the winds ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was hardened.

* Matt. 14.

53 * And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Genesareth and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carrie about in beds, those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch, it it were but the hem of his garment: and as many as touched it, were made whole.

¶ Or, it.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Pharisees finde fault at the disciples, for eating with unwashen hands. 2 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 3 Meat defileth not the man. 4 He healed the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 31 and one that was deaf and stammered in his speech.

Then * came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the Scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

* Matt. 15. 1.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

¶ Or, commandment.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands, 31 oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

¶ Or, diligently: in the Original, with the first: Theophylact, up to the elbow. ¶ Sextarius is about a pinte and an half, ¶ Or, beds.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups and 3 pots, brasen vessels, and of 3 tables.

5 When the Pharisees and Scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Elias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, * This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is farre from me.

* Isa. 29. 13. Matt. 23. 8.

7 Holdest, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye 3 reject the commandment of God: that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, 3 Who curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, it is * Coban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be possessed by me: he shall be free.

* Matt. 15. 5.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother:

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

* Matt. 15. 10.

15 There is nothing from without a man that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him, 19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And

and 8.21.

Matt. 15.19.

10 And he said, What cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

* Matt. 15.21

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it; but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

[Or, Gentile.

26 [The woman was a] Greek, a Syrophenician by nation) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes Lord, yet the dogs under the table eat of the childrens crummes.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way, the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when he was come to her house, he found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they being unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they publish it.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 10 refused to give a signe to the Pharisees: 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod: 23 giveth a blinde man his sight: 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again: 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel.

* Matt. 15.32

¶ In those dayes the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three dayes, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from farre.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about foure thousand; and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a signe from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, Why doth this generation seek after a signe? verily I say unto you, There shall no signe be given to this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ How the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more then one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he said unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, heare ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among foure thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida, and they bring a blinde man unto him, and brought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blinde man by the hand, and led him out of the town, and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up, and he was restored, and came every man cleanly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answered and said unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

11 And he began to teach them, that the Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise again.

12 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

13 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

14 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse, and follow me.

15 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it, but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospels, the same shall save it.

16 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

17 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

18 ¶ Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

C H A P. I X.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a devill, and deaf spirit: 20 foretelleth his death and resurrection on: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humilitie: 38 bidding them not to prohibe such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithfull.

1 And he said unto them, * Clerly I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six dayes, Jesus taketh both him, Peter, and James, and John, and leaveth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow: so as no fuller on earth can whiten them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias, with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Gospeller, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus onely with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Sonne of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the saying from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things, and how it is written of the Sonne of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, that Elias is already come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, * Matt. 17. 14 he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the Scribes, What question ye I with them?

¶ Or, among your selves.

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my sonne, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And whosoever he taketh him, he setteth him; and he cometh, and gnaweth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answered him, and saith, O faithlesse generation, how long shall I be with you, how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst beleve, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cried out, and said with teares, Lord, I beleve, help thou my unbelief.

25 And when Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumbe and deaf spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him selfe, and came out of him: and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why couldst not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kinde can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee, and he would not that any man should know it.

* Matt. 17. 25

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Sonne of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him: and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selves, by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down and called the twelve, and said unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a childe, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receiveth

The blinde man receiveth his sight. S. Mark. Christ rideth into Jerusalem.

33 Say now, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the Scribes: and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ And James and John the sonnes of Zebedee came unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on the right hand, and the other on the left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptised with the baptism that I am baptised with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptised with, shall ye be baptised:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and said unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Sonne of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, & a great number of people, blinde Bartimeus, the sonne of Timen, sat by the high way side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Sonne of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Sonne of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blinde man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blinde man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole; and immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

Christ rideth with triumph into Jerusalem: 12 curseth the fig-tree which leaveth fruit: 15 & cleanseth the temple: do exhorteth his disciples to steadfastness of faith, and to suffer for his name: 27 And defendeth the lawfulness of his actions, by the words of John, who was a man sent of God.

And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethpaz, & Bethanias, at the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples

2 And said unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall finde a colt tied, wherupon never man sat: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him, and straightway he will send him thither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the doore without, in a place where two mares met: and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there, said unto them, What do ye looking for the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let him go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the evening was come, he went out unto Bethanias with the twelve.

12 ¶ And on the morrow when they were come from Bethanias, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a fig-tree afarre off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might finde any thing thereon: & when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they come to Jerusalem, and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrow the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves:

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel throught the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the Scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance, said unto him, Master, behold, the fig-tree which thou curst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering said unto them, I have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to passe, he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand, praying, forgive, if ye

*Matt. 21. 23. 27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority dost thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

10r, thing. 29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men's answer ye.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered, and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering said unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let us to unthankfull husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the probation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cesar: 18 convinceth the error of the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection: 28 refuteth the Scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the Scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy: 41 and commendeth the poor widow further two mites, above all.

*Matt. 21. 33. A D * he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a farre country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again, he sent another, and him they killed, and many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one sonne, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my sonne.

7 But those husbandmen laid amongst themselves, This is the heir, come let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 * And have ye not read this scripture? The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lord doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people, for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawfull to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it: and he said unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesars.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesars: and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ * Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection, and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed, and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed last of all the women died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore erre, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly erre.

28 ¶ * And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord;

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: there is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Mat. 22.41

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, how say the Scribes that Christ is the Sonne of David?

36 For David himself said by the holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

37 Doubt therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his sonne? and the common people heard him gladly.

41 ¶ And Jesus sat over against the treasure, and beheld how the people cast in money into the treasure: and many that were rich cast in much.

It is the fewest part of one piece of what braile money.

42 And there came a certain poore widow, and she threw in two l mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poore widow hath cast more in, then all they which have cast into the treasure.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance: but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 9 the persecution for the gospel: 10 that the gospel must be preached to all nations: 14 that great calamities shall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgement. 31 The hour whereof being known to none, every man is to watch and pray, that he be not found unprovided, when he cometh to each one particularly by death.

Mat. 24.1

¶ As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said unto him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Mat. 24.3

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be, but the end shall not be yet.

The word in the original, importeth the paine of a woman in travail.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines, and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 ¶ But take heed to your selves: for they shall deliver you up to councils, with in the Synagogues, ye shall be beaten, and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

Mat. 10.19

11 ¶ But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought before-hand what ye shall speak, neither do ye meditate: but what-soever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the sonne: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Mat. 24.15

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, understand) then let them that be in Judea, flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top, not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again to take up his garment.

17 But too to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

18 And say ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those dayes shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the dayes.

Mat. 24.23

21 ¶ And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or so, he is there: beware him not.

22 For false Christs, and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signes and wonders, to deceive, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

Mat. 24.29

24 ¶ But in those dayes, after that tribulation, the sunne shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light.

25 And the starres of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the sonne of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winnes, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Howlearn a parable of the fig-tree, when her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to passe, know that it is nigh, even at the doores.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall passe away: but my words shall not passe away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Sonne, but the Father.

Mat. 24.43

33 ¶ Take ye heed, watch, and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man taking a farre journey, who left his house, and gave authority unworthy to be the house, and to have man his work, and to command the people to watch.

35 And as he the house (for ye know not when the matter of the house cometh, at noon, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning)

36 Let coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all.
Watch.

CHAP. XIII.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas Iscariot betrays him for money. 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed of one of his disciples:
23 after the passover prepared; and eaten, institute his supper: 26 declareth beforehand the flight of all his disciples, and Peter denieth. 43 Judas betrays him with a kiss. 46 He is apprehended in the garden, 53 falsely accused, and impiously condemned of the Jews council; 65 shamefully abused by them, 66 and thrice denied of Peter.

Mat. 26:2.

AFTER two dayes, was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

Mat. 26:6.

3 ¶ And being in Bethanias, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabastrer box of ointment of Nard, very precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

¶ Or, pure nard, or liquid nard,

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why wast this waite of the ointment made?

¶ See Math.
23:28.

5 For it might have bene sold for more then three hundred pence, and have bene given to the poore: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble you her: she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poore with you alwayes, and whenever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not alwayes.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come a foorth to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Clearly I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of, for a memoriall of her.

Mat. 26:14.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went away by night, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

Mat. 26:15.
¶ Or, sacrificed.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples sat unto him. And there was then that he go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he answered said unto of his disciples, and said unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man having a pottle of water: follow him.

14 And whosoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Whence is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city: and found as he had said unto them:
and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 ¶ And as they sat, and ate, Jesus said, "Mat. 26:18.
Clearly I say unto you, one of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowfull, and to say unto him, one by one, Is it I? And another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dipped with me in the dish.

21 The Sonne of man indeed goeth as it is written of him: but he that betrayeth him, he shall be damned: would to God that I knew him, if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, & when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: & they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Clearly I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymne, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 ¶ And Jesus said unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 ¶ That Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus said unto him, Clearly I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he sware the more vehemently, If I should be with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, Wait ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he took with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be heavy, and to be very sore.

34 And said unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowfull: wait ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the power might pass from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father: all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me:
nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and said unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? thou couldst not watch with me one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: the spirit is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again: (for their eyes were heavy) neither did they know what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come, behold, the Sonne of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go: lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with lighted torches, and staves, and pikes: and the high priest, and the scribes, and the elders.

44 And he kisseth him, and they laid hands on him, and bound him.

45 And one of them smote him with the palm of his hand, saying, Answer him.

46 And Jesus answered him, saying, If I have done amiss, forgive me: for I know not what I do.

47 And when he thus said, he was led forth unto the high priest.

48 And they bound his hands with cords, and they led him out, to go to Pilate.

49 And Simon Peter followed him, and he came into the palace of the high priest: but Peter did not go in with him, but stood without.

50 And when Peter was without, there came two women, and they said unto him, Thou art also of the Jews.

51 And he said unto them, No, I am not: I am a Galilee.

52 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

53 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

54 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

55 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

56 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

57 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

58 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

59 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

60 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

61 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

62 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

63 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

64 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

65 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

66 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

67 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

68 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

69 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

70 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

71 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

72 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

73 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

74 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

75 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

76 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

77 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

78 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of Galilee.

79 And he said unto them, I tell you, I am
not of Galilee.

80 And they said unto him, Thou art of the Jews: thou shalt have said so, for thou art of 44 And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whosoever I shall kiss, that shall he be; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he went straightway to him, and said, Greeting, Greeting, and kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by, drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and out off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and with staves, to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men laid hold on him.

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

Mat. 26. 53. 53 ¶ And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders, and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, when he saw the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

Mat. 26. 59. 55 ¶ And the chief priests, and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death, and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Son of the Blessed?

Mat. 24. 30. 62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and said, What need we any further witnesses?

64 We have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

Mat. 26. 69. 66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest.

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth?

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 ¶ And the second time the cock crew: and Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crew twice thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

* Mat. 26. 75.

1809, he wept abundantly, or he began to weep.

CHAP. XV.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate. 2 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 3 He is crowned with thorns, 4 spit on, and mocked: 5 scimiters in bearing his cross: 6 brought between two thieves: 7 suffereth the triumphant reproaches of the Jews: 8 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God: 9 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

¶ And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

* Mat. 27. 1.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 ¶ And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

* Mat. 27. 13.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection, and with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews? 10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.)

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why? what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And he was willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium, and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head.

18 And began to salute him, Hail king of the Jews.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 ¶ And they compell one Simon a Cyrene, who was the father of Alexander and Rufus, to man, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink, wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucified two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which said,  Isa. 53. 12.

29 And he was numbered with the transgressors.

30 And they that passed by, railled on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, & buildest it in three days, 31 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

32 Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, We saved others, himself he cannot save.

33 Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe: and they that were crucified with him, reviled him.

34 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land: until the ninth hour.

35 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying,  Eloï, Eloï, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

36 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he called Elias.

37 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

38 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

39 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

40 And when the centurion which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

41 There were also women looking on afar off, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome;

42 And when they had seen these things, they returned, and came to the sepulchre.

43 And now when the even was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath)

44 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

45 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead, and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

46 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

47 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, & wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was between out of a rock, & rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

48 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI

1 An angel declared the resurrection of Christ to three women. 2 Christ himself appeared to Mary Magdalene: 3 to two going into the country: 4 then to the apostles: 5 wherein he sends forth to preach the gospel: 6 and ascendeth into heaven.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted.

6 And he said unto them, Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen, he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre, for they trembled, and were amazed, neither said they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And he went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had seen him of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that, he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the rest, neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not him which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues, 18 They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. LUKE.

CHAP. I.

2 The preface of Luke to his whole gospel. 5 The conception of John the Baptist. 26 and of Christ. 39 The prophesie of Elizabeth, and of Mary, concerning Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John. 67 The prophesie of Zachary, both of Christ, 76 and of John.

Forthwith as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely beleeved among us, 2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word:

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus.

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 Now there was in the dayes of Herod the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the court of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, dwelling in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to passe, that while he executed the priests office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custome of the priests office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, even from his mothers womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the will of the Lord, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God: and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in thee.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckened unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to passe that as soon as the dayes of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elizabeth conceived, and bore her self five moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a sonne, and shalt call his name Jesus.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her old age, & this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary abode in those dayes, and went into the hill country with haste, into a cite of Judaea.

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to passe that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, she brake in a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

42 And the spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For so, as soon as the voice of the salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is he that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 * He hath shewed strength with his arm, * he hath scattered the proud, in the imagination of their hearts.

52 * He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 * He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, * in remembrance of his mercy, 55 * As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came, that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to passe that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, & they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signes to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John: and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them, and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? and the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 * And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David;

70 * As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began.

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us.

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant:

73 * The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we bring forth a saviour out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the dayes of our life.

76 And thou child, shalt be called the prophet of the highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sinnes,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 Augustus reareth all the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 One angel relateth it to the shepherds. 13 Many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of Christ: 40 who increased in wisdom, 40 quietness in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born sonne, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping a watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe unto you, ye shall finde the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to passe, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go then unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to passe, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the holy Ghost, that he should not see death before he had seen the Lords Christ.

27 And he came by the spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custome of the law,

28 When took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 Lord now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation:

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people:

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the * fall and rising again of many in Israel: and for a signe which shall be spoken against:

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and foure yeares: which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the company, went a dayes journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to passe, that after three dayes they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Fathers business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

1 The preaching and baptisme of John: 15 His testimonie of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptised, receiveth testimonie from heaven. 23 The age and genealogie of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOW in the fifteenth yeare of the reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Iudra, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturra, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the sonne of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 * And he came into all the countrey about Jordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sinnes,

* Mat. 3. 1.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Elias the prophet, saying, * The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

* Isa. 40. 3.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough wayes shall be made smooth,

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, * O generation of vipers, who have warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

* Mat. 3. 7.

8 Bring forth therefore fruits I wot of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

Or, meet for.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

* Jam. 2. 15.
* John 3. 17.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answered and said unto them, * He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, What shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, * Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; & be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not:

16 John answered, saying unto them all, * I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose; he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 * But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philipps wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to passe that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Sonne, in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty yeares of age, being (as was supposed) the sonne of Joseph, which was the sonne of Heli,

24 Which was the sonne of Matthat, which was the sonne of Levi, which was the sonne of Melchi, which was the sonne of Janna, which was the sonne of Joseph,

25 Which was the sonne of Matthatias, which was the sonne of Amos, which was the sonne of Naum, which was the sonne of Eli, which was the sonne of Haggai,

26 Which was the sonne of Measeb, which was the sonne of Matthatias, which was the sonne of Meuseb, which was the sonne of Josaph, which was the sonne of Juda,

27 Which was the sonne of Joannas, which was the sonne of Abia, which was the sonne of Seioababel, which was the sonne of Salathiel, which was the sonne of Zerai, 28 Which was the sonne of Melchi, which was the sonne of Abdi, which was the sonne of Cosam, which was the sonne of Elinoam, which was the sonne of Ser,

29 Which was the sonne of Josi, which was the sonne of Eliezer, which was the sonne of Josim, which was the sonne of Matthat, which was the sonne of Levi,

30 Which was the sonne of Simeon, which was the sonne of Juda, which was the sonne of Joseph, which was the sonne of Jonan, which was the sonne of Eliakim,

31 Which was the sonne of Melea, which was the sonne of Eriam, which was the sonne of Matthatias, which was the sonne of Nathan, which was the sonne of David,

32 Which was the sonne of Jesse, which was the sonne of Obed, which was the sonne of Booz, which was the sonne of Salmon, which was the sonne of Maasson,

33 Which was the sonne of Aminadab, which was the sonne of Aram, which was the sonne of Esrom, which was the sonne of Phares, which was the sonne of Juda,

34 Which was the sonne of Jacob, which was the sonne of Isaac, which was the sonne of Abraham, which was the sonne of Thara, which was the sonne of Nachor,

35 Which was the sonne of Saruch, which was the sonne of Ragau, which was the sonne of Phalek, which was the sonne of Eber, which was the sonne of Sala,

36 Which was the sonne of Cainan, which was the sonne of Arphaxad, which was the sonne of Sem, which was the sonne of Noe, which was the sonne of Lamech,

37 Which was the sonne of Methusala, which was the sonne of Enock, which was the sonne of Jared, which was the sonne of Mahalel, which was the sonne of Cainan, 38 Which was the sonne of Enos, which was the sonne of Seth, which was the sonne of Adam, which was the sonne of God.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil: 14 he beginneth to preach. 16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He curseth one possessed of a devil. 38 Peters mother in law, 40 and drives other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it. 43 He preaches through the cities.

And * Jesus being full of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty dayes tempted of the devil, and in those dayes he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them; for that is delivered unto me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt, I worship thee: and thou shalt worship me.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thyself down from hence.

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee.

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

* Matt. 13. 54.

16 ¶ And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah; and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

* Isa. 61. 1.

18 "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bound,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: in whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

* Matt. 13. 57.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

* 1. King. 17. 9.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elías, when the heaven was shut up three years and six moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land:

26 But unto none of them was Elías sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

* 2. King. 5. 24.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elíseus the prophet: and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, ¶ Or, edge.

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill (whereon their city was built) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

* Matt. 7. 29. * Mark 1. 23.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 100, away.

34 Saying, I let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy one of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, * Matt. 8. 14. and entered into Simon's house: and Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sunne was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the sonne of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. * Mark 1. 34.

¶ Or, to say that they knew him to be Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship; 4 in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men; 12 cleanseth the leper; 16 prayeth in the wilderness; 18 healeth one sick of the palsy; 27 calleth Matthew the publicane; 29 eateth with sinners, as being the physician of souls; 34 foreteller the fasting and afflictions of the apostles after his ascending; 36 and liketh faint-hearted and weak disciples to old bottles, and worn garments.

¶ And * Matt. 4. 18. it came to passe, that as the people pressed upon him to heare the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genesareth,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon and tvering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had thus done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished and all that were with him at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all and followed him.

12 ¶ And

* Matth. 3. 12 ¶ And it came to passe, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, & besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean: and immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdreweto himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to passe on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees, and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

* Matth. 9. 2 ¶ And behold, men brought in a bed a man, which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, What is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sinnes but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee, or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath power upon earth to forgive sinnes (he said unto the sick of the palsy) I say unto thee, Arise, & take up thy couch, & go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, Wee have seen strange things to day.

* Matth. 9. 9 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publicane named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: & he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: & there was a great company of publicanes, and of others that sat down with them:

30 But their Scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicanes and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician: but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

* Matth. 9. 14 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the dayes will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them, No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles, else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wines must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ reproveh the Pharisees blindness about the observation of the sabbath, by scripture, reason, and miracle: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessing, and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies: 46 and joyne the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word, lest in the evil day of temptation we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth without any foundation.

¶ And it came to passe on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn felos: and his disciples plucked the eares of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the sabbath-dayes?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him:

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which is not lawfull to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Sonne of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶ And it came to passe also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagoge and taught, and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawfull on the sabbath-dayes to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand: and he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness, and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles:

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for they went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, * Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 * But two unto you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 * Woe unto you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now: for ye shall mourne and weep.

26 Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 * But I say unto you which heare, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 * And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: * and him that taketh away thy cloake, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.

31 * And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 * For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 * And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend hoping for nothing again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the highest: for he is kinde unto the unthankfull, and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 * Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you: good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosome. For with the same measure that ye mete withall, it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, * Can the blinde lead the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch? * Matt. 15. 14.

40 * The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. * Matt. 10. 24.

41 * And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or, shall he be perfected as his master. * Matt. 7. 3.

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 * For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit: neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. * Matt. 7. 16.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 * And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? * Matt. 7. 21.

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doth them, I will shew you to whom he is like.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth: against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruine of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ findeth greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, then in any of the Jews; 20 healeth his servant being absent; 21 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain; 19 answereth John messengers with the declaration of his miracle; 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he held of John; 30 moveth against the Jews, who neither with the manner of John nor of Jesus could be wonne; 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sin, but to forgive them their sinnes, upon their faith and repentance.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, * he entered into Capernaum. * Matt. 8. 5.

2 And a certain centurions servant, who was deare unto him, was sick and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, that he was worthy for whom he should do this.

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a Synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not farre from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy self, for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof,

7 And here,

7 Wherefore neither thought I my self worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, habing under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a cite called Naïm: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the cite, behold, there was a dead man carried out: the only sonne of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the cite was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weepe not.

14 And he came and touched the siders, (and they that bare him stood still) and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them unto Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same houre he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blinde he gave sight.

22 Then Iesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the blinde see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf heare, the dead are raised, to the poore the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more then a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet then John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicanes justified God, bring baptizing with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against them: for they being not baptizd of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord saith, * Wherunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Sonne of man is come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ * And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisees house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the cite, which was a sinner, when she knew that Iesus sat at meat in the Pharisees house, brought an alabastrer box of ointment.

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidde him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Dost thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 Mine head with oyl thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sinnes, which are many, are forgiven: for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sinnes are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say within themselves, What is this that forgiveness sinnes also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Women minister unto Christ of their substance. 4 Christ after he had preached from place to place, attended with his apostles, propoundeth the parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle; 21 declareth who are his mother, and brethren; 22 rebuketh the winds; 26 casteth the legion of devils out of the man, into the herd of swine; 37 is rejected of the Gadarens; 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue; 49 and raiseth from dead Jairus daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that he went throughout every city & village preaching, and shewing the good things of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him.

Mark 16.9.

2 And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils.

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuzas, Herods steward, and Sullanna, and many others which ministered unto him of their substance.

Matt. 13.2.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayes side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the aire devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, Ye that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What meaneth this parable?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

Matt. 13. 18.

11 ¶ Now the parable is this: The seed, is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side, are they that heare: then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock, are they, which when they heare, receive the word with joy; and these have no root: which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground, are they which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

Matt. 5.15.

16 ¶ No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

Matt. 10. 26.

17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.

Matt. 13. 12.

18 Take heed therefore how ye heare: for whosoever heareth, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away that which he hath: so that he which hath, shall have more abundantly.

Matt. 13. 12.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which beare the word of God, and do it.

Matt. 8.22.

22 ¶ Now it came to passe on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake; and they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of winds on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the winds, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, What here is your faith? And they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commanded even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarens, which is over against Galilee.

Matt. 8.28.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city, a certain man which had devils long time, & wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus thou sonne of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him, & he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters, and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils, was healed.

37 ¶ When the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarens round about, besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went.

ment his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

* Matt. 9:18.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jesus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue, and he fell down at Jesus feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. (But as he went the people thronged him.)

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stancheth.

45 And Jesus said, Who hath touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus saith, Some body hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole. go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead, trouble not the master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not, believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

1 Christ sendeth his apostles to work miracles, & so preach. 7 Herod desireth to see Christ. 17 Christ feedeth five thousand: 18 enquireth what opinion the world had of him; foretelleth his passion: 23 prophesieth to all the pattern of his patience. 28 The transfiguration. 37 He healeth the lunatick: 43 again forewarneth his disciples of his passion: 46 commendeth humilitie: 51 biddeth them to shew mildenesse towards all, without desire of revenge: 57 Divers would follow him, but upon condition.

* Matt. 10:1.

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

1 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats a piece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead:

* Matt. 14:1.

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles when they were returned told him all that they had done. * And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

* Mat. 14:13.

11 And the people when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and gave unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

* Matt. 14:15.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes, except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

* Matt. 16:13.

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist: but some say Elias: and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them and commanded them to tell no man that thing.

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the Jews, and chief priests, and Scribes, and be slain: and be raised the third day.

* Matt. 17:22.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

* Matt. 10:38.

27 * For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

28 * For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his fathers, and of the holy angels.

29 * But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

30 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

31 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

32 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias.

33 And who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

34 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

35 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

36 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them, and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

37 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Sonne, hear him.

38 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seen.

39 * And it came to passe, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

40 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my sonne, for he is mine only childe.

41 And lo, a spirit raked him, and he suddenly cried out, and it teareth him, that he someth again, and smiting him, hardly departed from him.

42 And I besought thy disciples to call him out, and they could not.

43 And Jesus answering, said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, & suffer you? Bring thy sonne hither.

44 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the childe, and delivered him again to his father.

45 * And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: but while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 46 * Let these sayings sink down into your eares: for the Sonne of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

47 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

48 * When there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

49 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a childe, and set him by him,

50 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this childe in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

51 * And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, is for us.

53 * And it came to passe, when the time was come that he should be received up, he secretly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

54 And sent messengers before his face, and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him.

55 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

56 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, tell thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

57 But he turned, and rebuked them, & said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

58 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

59 * And it came to passe that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

60 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the aire have nests, but the Sonne of man hath not where to lay his head.

61 * And he said unto another, Follow me: but he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

62 And Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead, but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

63 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

64 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ sendeth out at once severie disciples to work wraracles, and to preach: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoyce: 21 thanketh his father for his grace: 23 magnifieth the happy estate of his church:
25 teacheth the lawyer how to attain eternall life, and to save every one for his neighbour that needeth his mercy:
41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary her sister.

After * these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city, and place whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, * The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your wayes: * behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way.

5 * And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the sonne of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating, and

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your wayes out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, then for that city.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning, fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoyce not, that the spirits are subject unto you: but rather rejoyce, because your names are written in heaven.

21 And in that houre Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reveal him.

23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, * Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 And he bowed, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, * Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

*Matt. 22. 35

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength; and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee. [See Matt. 20. 2.]

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, So, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to passe, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

I Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 11 offering that God so will give us good things. 14 He casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisee: 28 and sheweth who are blessed: 29 preacheth to the people: 37 and reprehendeth the outward show of holiness in the Pharisees, Scribes, and lawyers.

And it came to passe, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, * Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us this day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our finnes, for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Whichever of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine is in his journey, & is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him:

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise, and give him, because he is his friend: yet because of his importunity, he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

Many ancient copies add these words, And turning to his disciples, he said, * Matt. 13. 16

9 And I say unto you, Arise, and it shall be given you: rise, and ye shall stand: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

[Matt. 7. 9.]

11 If a sonne shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumbe. And it came to passe when the devil was gone out, the dumbe spake: and the people wondered.

* Matt. 9. 34.
and 12. 24.

15 But some of them said, We casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils.

16 And others tempting him, sought of him a signe from heaven.

17 But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation: and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your finnes cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 And when a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace.

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 We that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

* Matt. 12. 43

24 And when the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 And it came to passe as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, & said unto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, & the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the word of God and keep it.

* Matt. 12. 38

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation, they seek a signe, and there shall no signe be given it, but the signe of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a signe unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Sonne of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and condemne them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to heare the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 And when he had lighted a candle, he putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushell, nor on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, the whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter: but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 But rather give almes of such things as ye have: & behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But two unto you Pharisees: for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and passe over judgement and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, & not to leave the other undone.

43 And unto you Pharisees: for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 And unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them, are not aware of them.

45 And he answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Who unto you also ye say, verily: for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye your selves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 And unto you: for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation.

51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple, verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 And unto you lawyers: for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in your selves, and them that were entering in, ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the Scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Saying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAP

Against hypocrisie & covetousnes. Chap.xii. Seek the kingdome of God.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisie and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine: 13 warneth the people to beware of covetousnes, by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns. 22 We must not be over-carefull of earthly things; 31 but seek the kingdome of God; 33 give almes; 36 be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whensoever he cometh. 41 Christs ministers are to see to their charges; 49 and look for persecution. 54 The people must take this time of grace; 58 because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation.

* Mat. 16. 6. I 2 * the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

* Mat. 10. 26. 2 * For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light: and that which ye have spoken in the rare in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

* Mat. 10. 28. 4 * And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell, yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

* See Mat. 10. 30. 6 * Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

* Mat. 10. 33. 8 * Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man also confesse before the angels of God.

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

* Mat. 10. 39. 11 * And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same houre what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousnes: for a mans life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do, I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there will I bestow all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many yeares, take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Wherefore I say unto you, * Take no thought for your life what ye shall eat, neither for the body what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meat, and the body is more then raiment.

24 Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which neither have storehouse nor barn, and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better then the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow, they toil not, they spin not: and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, I neither be ye of doubtful minde.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdome of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your fathers good pleasure to give you the kingdome.

33 Well that ye have, and give almes: * provide your selves bags which waxe not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 * Let your loynes be girded about, and your lightes burning,

36 And ye your selves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh shall finde watching: verily, I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, be come in the third watch, and finde them so, blessed are those servants.

39 * And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what houre the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Sonne of man cometh at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speak thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, What do thou say? that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall finde so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

Or, do they require thy soul.

Let his labour, whereby shall it be seasoned:
It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for

CHAP. XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver:
13 of the prodigal sonne.

Then drew neare unto him all the publicanes and sinners to heare him.

2 And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake this parable unto them,
saying,

4 As when any man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more then over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she finde it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Re-joyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God, over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sounes:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many dayes after, the younger sonne gathered all together, and took his journey into a farre countrey, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land, and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joyned himself to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him into his fieldes to feed swine.

16 And he would faine have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said,
How many hired servants of my fathers have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring thither the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is alive again: he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder sonne was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many yeeres do I serve thee, neither transgressing at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy sonne was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots,
thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Sonne, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrite of the covetous Pharisee.
19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the begger.

And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward, and the same was accused unto him, that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself,
What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lords debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he saith, An hundred measures of oyl.
And he saith unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he saith, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to you selves friends of the unrighteousness of this world, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 For that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

The parable of Dives and Lazarus. Chap. XVII. CHAP. XVII.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithfull in the unrighteous || Mammon, who will commit to you trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithfull in that which is another mans, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ So servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other: ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justifye your selves before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 * The law and the prophets were untill John: since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 * And it is easier for heaven and earth to passe, then one title of the law to fail.

18 * Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever married her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 * There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

20 And there was a certain begger named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crummes which fell from the rich mans table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to passe that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosome: the rich man also died and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receivdest thy good things, and like wise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would passe from hence to you cannot, neither can they passe to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said unto him, They have Moses and the prophets, let them heare them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they heare not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith. 7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdome of God, and the coming of the Sonne of man.

¶ Then said he unto the disciples, * It is impossible but that offences will come, but wo unto him through whom they come.

2 He teacheth them, that a mans sinne is more dangerous above his wealth. And he saith unto the law, then that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to your selves: * If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 * And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamore-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattell, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thy self, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken: and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to passe, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afarr off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus Master have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, * Go shew your selves unto the priests. And it came to passe that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God.

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Where were not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give gloire to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was departed of the Pharisees, when the kingdome of God should come; he answered them and said, The kingdome of God cometh not in outward observation.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or lo there: for behold, the kingdome of God is within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The dayes will come when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 * And they shall say to you, See here, or see thither: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the east part under heaven, shined unto the other part under heaven: so shall also the Sonne of man be in his day.

25 For he shall be as the sonne of man, and he shall be as the sonne of man.

26 And as it was in the days of Noe; so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark: and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded:

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all:

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's wife.

33 And whosoever shall seek to save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed: the one shall be taken, the other shall be left;

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Lord, Lord: and he said unto them, Whosoever the body is, whether will the eagle be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

Of the importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and the publican. 19 Children brought to Christ.

18 A ruler that would follow Christ, but is hindered by his flock. 28 The reward of them that leave all for his sake. 31 He forebears his death. 35 and restores a blind man to his sight.

And he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenging me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not do it a while: but afterwards he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man is revealed, shall he make faith in the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and said thus within himself, God I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples said unto him, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was sorrowful, he said, Good tidings have I tell thee, that thou hast riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Jesus said, Who have left all, and followed thee?

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ When he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and killed.

33 And they shall kill him, and put him to death.

34 And they shall mock him, and say, He saved others; himself he cannot save. He shall be despised.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was coming up unto Jerusalem, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passed by.

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the Scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him.

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAP. XX.

I Christ avoweth his authority, by a question of John's baptisms. 9 The parable of the vineyard. 19 Of giving tribute to Cesar. 27 He convinces the Sadducees that denied the resurrection. 41 How Christ is the sonne of David. 45 He warneth his disciples to beware of the Scribes.

* Mat. 23. 23.

AND it came to pass, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the Scribes came upon him, with the elders.

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, By what authority dost thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, and answer me.

4 The baptisme of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why ye then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

* Mat. 23. 33.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable. A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a farre country for a long time.

10 And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the third, and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved sonne: it may be they will reverence him, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husband-men, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he began to say, and said, What is this that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

* Psal. 118. 23

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whosoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the Scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which would feigne themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, * Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly.

* Mat. 23. 16.

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

* Or, of a truth

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penny: whose image and super-scription hath it? They answered and said, Ce-sar's.

* See Maith.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people, and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

* Mat. 22. 23.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection, and they asked him.

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any mans brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and died without children.

31 And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also: they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

36 Neither can they die any more; for they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, ¶ even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

* Exod. 3. 6

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the Scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, * Now say they that Christ is Davids sonne?

* Mat. 22. 42

42 And David himself saith in the book of psalmes,

The ruine of the temple foretold. Chap. xxi. xxii. Signes before the psalmes. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand.

43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
44 Doubt therefore called him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

* Mar. 23.5.

46 * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the market, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts.

47 Which devoure widows houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ commendeth the poore widows. 5 He foretelleth the destruction of the temple, and of the city Jerusalem.

25 The signes also which shall be before the last day.

34 He exhorteth them to be watchfull.

* Mar. 12.41.

And he looked up, * and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

¶ See Mar. 12.

2 And he saw also a certain poore widow, casting in thither two mites.

26

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God, but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

* Mat. 23.4.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said,

6 For these things which ye behold, the dayes will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be throught down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe shall there be when these things shall come to passe?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neare: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall heare of waeres, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to passe, but the end is not by and by.

* Mar. 24.7.

10 * They said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences, and fearful sights, and great signes shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my names sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

* Mar. 10.19.

14 * Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before, what ye shall answer.

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake.

* Mar. 10.30.

18 * But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

10 * And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 ¶ Then let them which are in Judaea, flee to the mountains, and let them which are in the midst of it, depart out, and let not them that are in the countrey, enter thereinto.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But two unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those dayes; for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captiue into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, untill the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

* Mat. 24.29.

25 ¶ And there shall be signes in the sunne, and in the moon, and in the starres, and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring.

26 Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all the trees.

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not passe away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall passe away: but my words shall not passe away.

34 ¶ And take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray alwayes, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and to stand before the Sonne of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to heare him.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ. 3 Satan persuadeth Judas to betray him. 7 The apostles prepare the pasche.

19 Christ instituteth his holy supper: 21 covertly foretelleth of the traitour: 24 denounceth the rest of his apostles from ambition: 32 assureth Peter his faith should not fail, 34 and yet he should deny him thrice.

39 He prayeth in the mount, and sweateth blood: 47 is betrayed with a kisse: 50 he beareth Malmescore.

54 He is thrice denied of Peter, 63 shamefully abused, 66 and confesseth himself to be the Sonne of God.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passover.

2 And the chief priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 When entered Jesus into Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, being of the number of the twelve, and he went out, and communed with the chief priests and elders, how he might betray him unto them.

4 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

5 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

6 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

7 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

8 And they said unto him, Whither wilt thou that we prepare?

9 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he is entered in.

10 And he shall say unto the good woman of the house, Where doth the master eat the passover with his disciples?

11 And he shall say unto you a large upper room furnished, there make ready.

12 And when they were and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passover.

13 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

14 And he said unto them, I desire desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer.

15 For I say unto you, I will not eat it more, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

16 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves.

17 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

18 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of me.

19 ¶ Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

20 ¶ But behold, the hands of him that betrayeth me, are with me on the table.

21 And truly the Son of man goeth as it was determined, but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed.

22 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

23 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

24 ¶ And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors.

25 But ye shall not be so; but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

26 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

27 ¶ We are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

28 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me:

29 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he 1. Pet. 5. 8. may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that the faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thou thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee whithersoever thou wilt.

34 ¶ And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, because that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he said unto them, When I sent you without money, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now be ye hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written, must be accomplished in me: And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down, and prayed.

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 ¶ And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 ¶ And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow.

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 ¶ And when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 ¶ Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with weapons and daggers?

53 ¶ And I was daily with you in the temple, ye threatened forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priests house. And Peter sat down among them.

55 ¶ And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 ¶ ¶ And a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

17 And he denied him, saying, I know him not.

18 And after a little while another said unto him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

19 And about the space of one hour after, and they confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

20 And Peter said, Upon, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

21 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

22 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

23 ¶ And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

24 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesie, who is it that smote thee?

25 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

26 ¶ And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests and the Scribes came together, and led him into their counsel.

27 Saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe.

28 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.

29 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

30 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of David? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

31 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, and sent to Herod. 2 Herod mocketh him. 12 Herod and Pilate are made friends. 18 Barabbas is desired of the people, and is loosed by Pilate, and Jesus is given to be crucified. 27 He rebuketh the women that lament him, the destruction of Jerusalem: 34 prophesies for his enemies. 39 Two evil doers are crucified with him. 46 His death. 50 His buriall.

And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, We stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 When he questioned him, he said to many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests also verily stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at naught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, saying that he perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 And, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Release with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Whosoever a certain tradition made in the cite, and for murder was cast in prison)

20 Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning into them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selves, and for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 ¶ Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 ¶ For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the drie?

32 ¶ And there were also two other malefactors, which were also to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactor also, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding, and the rulers also which had derided him, saying, he sa-

36 And when the women also were come, coming to him, and seeing him living, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.
38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS JESUS THE SON OF DAVID THE KING OF THE JEWS.
39 And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, called on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thy self and us.
40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly: for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss.
42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.
43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.
44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the mids.
46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, * Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.
50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor, and he was a good man, and a just:
51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a citie of the Jews (who also himself waited for the kingdom of God).
52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.
54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath day on.
55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments, and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

CHAP. XXIII.

His resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that came to the sepulchre, & these report it to others. 12 Christ himself appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emmaus. 36 Afterward he appeareth to the Apostles, and reproves their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the holy Ghost: 51 and so ascendeth into heaven.

palchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.
2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.
3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.
4 And it came to passe, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.
5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye // the living among the dead?
6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,
7 Saying, The Sonne of man must be delivered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
8 And they remembered his words,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the Apostles.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.
12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre, and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to passe.
13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.
14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
15 And it came to passe, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself dyed near, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.
17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are late?
18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe therein these dayes?
19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people:
20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
21 But we trusted that it had been he, which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.
22 And certain women also of our company made us astonishen, which were early at the sepulchre:
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.
24 And certain of them which were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not.
25 ¶ Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to beleve all that the prophets have spoken:
26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning at Moses, and at all the pro-

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the se-place, he remained with them in all the scriptures, the things concerning himself.

28 And they departed into the village, whilst they went, and he made as though he would have gone farther.

29 But they contrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is towards evening, and the day is farre spent, and he went in to carry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, whilst he talked with us by the way, and whilst he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified, and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Where are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see, for the spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And whilst they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-combe.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalmes concerning me.

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should be preached in his name, among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as farre as to Bethany, and he lift up his hands, and blessed them.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The divine, humane, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

2 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

3 The same was in the beginning with God.

4 All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

5 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

6 And the light shined in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

7 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

8 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe.

9 He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

10 ¶ John was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

11 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

12 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

13 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the Sonnes of God; even to them that believe on his name.

14 ¶ Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of man, but of God.

15 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth.

16 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This is he of whom I spake, he that cometh after me, is preferred before me, for he was before me.

17 And of this I fullest have all we received, and grace for grace.

18 For the law was given by Moses; but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

19 ¶ As man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Sonne, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

20 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?

21 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

22 And they asked him, What then? art thou Elias? and he said, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

23 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? what sayest thou of thyself?

24 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord.

Or, ceased to be seen of them.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.
And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said unto him, They have no wine.
Jesus said unto her, Woman, what have
I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.
His mother said unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.
And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three skins apiece.
Jesus said unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
And he said unto them, Draw out now and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bore it.
When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, he knew not whence it came, but the servants which had drawn the water knew: the governor of the feast called the water-groom.
And he said unto him, Every man at the beginning doeth set forth good wine; and when have well drunk, then that which is worse he doeth set forth: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory, and his disciples believed on him.
After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days.
And the Jews passed from there to Capernaum, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
And found in the temple that they sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting.
And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the tables, and the benches, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables.
And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.
And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me.
When answered the Jews, and said unto him, What have we to do with thee, Jesus?
Jesus answered and said unto them, My house is my Father's house, and ye say, We have no zeal for this house, as ye have no zeal for my Father's house.

21 But he knew of the things of his body.
22 And he, the hope of the world, from the dead, his disciples remained with him; he said unto them; and they believed in the signification; and the word which Jesus had said.
23 And when he was in Jerusalem, at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in him, when they saw the miracles which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men;
25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration: 14 of faith in his death; 16 the great love of God towards the world; 18 Condemnation for unbelief; 23 The baptisms, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 Who came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus said unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Whence thou sayest, I know that thou sayest, We must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth; and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen, and yet receive not one testimony.

12 And I have told you earthly things; and ye believe not: how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness: even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son: that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved:

18 He that believeth on him, is not condemned; but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Son of God which is come into the world.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light; because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth such things, the light of life shall not come upon him.

21 But he that keepeth his commandments, shall not come into condemnation; but the reward of life shall be given him.

22 And after these things came Jesus and his disciples into the temple of Solomon, and taught the Jews, and the Jews answered, saying, How knowest thou these things, seeing thou art a Samaritan, and hast not dwelt here?

23 Jesus answered, and said unto them, My teaching is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

24 For John was not yet sent into the world.

25 And when these arose, a question between some of the Jews, and the Jews, about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

27 John answered, and said, I know not.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ teacheth with a woman of Samaria, and teacheth himself, and her, of the Spirit of God: 14 He teacheth to them his gift in God's glory; 39 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 49 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 51 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 53 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 55 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 57 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 59 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 61 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 63 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 65 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 67 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 69 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 71 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 73 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 75 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 77 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 79 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 81 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 83 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 85 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 87 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 89 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 91 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 93 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 95 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 97 He teacheth to them to believe on him; 99 He teacheth to them to believe on him.

When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus came and baptized more disciples than John;

2 (Because Jesus himself baptized more than his disciples)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he went thence to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, where Jacob's well was.

5 Then Jesus sat there, because he was weary.

6 And there came a woman of Samaria to him, and said unto him, Sir, I have heard of thee.

7 And she said unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, sittest here, being weary?

8 He answered, and said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

9 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

10 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

11 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

12 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

13 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

14 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

123 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

124 And he said unto her, My meat is that which the Father hath given me, and he hath said, I will give him life.

fore being burdened with his journey, let thus on the well, and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, Now is it that thou being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria: for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water: that I thirst not, neither come thither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that hast thou trailest.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Christ cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, am he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? nor he talked with her:

28 The woman then left her water-pot and went away into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 When they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest: behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields: for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified. He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed, because of his own words.

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain noble man, whose sonne was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his sonne: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy sonne liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy sonne liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

I Jesus on the sabbath-day cured him that was diseased eight and thirty years. The Jews therefore cavill, and persecute him for it. He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who be it.

After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Levit. 23, 36
Levit. 16,
2. Now

Christ be with who he is.

File 3-200

I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye shall have no life in you.

54 And so to eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so, he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagoge, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Sonne of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that quickneth the flesh: I quicken nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ the Sonne of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldnesse of his kinsmen: 10 geth up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles: 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Iudea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Iudea, that the disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: If thou do these things, shew thy self to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren beleve in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 On ye up unto this feast: I am not yet come up to this feast, for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he went still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, he is a good man: others said, nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly, for they feared of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of my self.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why goe ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the sabbath-day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, I should not be hroken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But he, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him: do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is, but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am, and I am not come of my self, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him, for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people beleve in him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles then these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him: and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while

CHAP. VIII.

1. Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. 2. He preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine: 33. answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59. and correcteth himself from their crueltie.

2. Jesus went unto the mount of Olives:

3. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him, and he sat down, and taught them.

4. And the Scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had set her in the midst,

5. They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

* Lev. 24. 10. 6. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

7. This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him: but Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

8. So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, & said unto them, He that is without sin, let him first cast a stone at her:

9. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

10. And they which heard it, being convicted of their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

11. When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

12. She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sinne no more.

13. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

14. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thy self, thy record is not true.

15. Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of my self, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

16. He that judgeth after the flesh, I judge no man.

17. And yet if I judge, my judgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

18. It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

19. I am one that bear witness of my self, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

20. Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, De neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

21. These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him, for his hour was not yet come.

22. Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall see me, and shall die in your sinnes: whether I go, ye cannot come.

23. Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself, because he saith, Whether I go, ye cannot come?

24. And he said unto them, De are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

25. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sinnes: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

26. Then said they unto him, What art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

27. I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true, & I speak of the world those things which I have heard of him.

28. They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

29. Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lift up the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

30. And he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone: for I do always those things that please him.

31. As he spake these words, many believed on him.

32. Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

33. And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

The Jews boasting of Abraham. Chap. ix. The man borne blinde made to see.

33 They answered him, Wike be Abrahams seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou? He shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily verily, I say unto you, * Whosoever committed sinne, is the servant of sinne.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Sonne abideth ever.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. When said they to him, Wike be not borne of fornication, we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceed forth, and came from God; neither came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 * Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye desire to kill me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sinne? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 * Ye that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, How we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou alive?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour my self, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him, how I know him: and I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and is persecuted by.

CHAP. IX.

1 The man that was borne blinde refused to fight. 8 He is brought to the Pharisees. 23 They are offended at it, and excommunicate him: 35 how he is received of Jesus, and crucified him. 39 Who they are whom Christ hath bene.

As Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was born blinde?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blinde man with the clay.

7 And said unto him, Go wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent): he went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 Of the neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 * They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blinde.

14 And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, he put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath-day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blinde man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blinde, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your Sonne, who ye say was borne blinde? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our Sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not, or whose hand opened his eyes we know not: he is of age, ask him, he shall speak for himself.

Or, spread the clay upon the eyes of the blinde man

* Rom. 6. 20.

3. Pet. 2. 19.

* 1 John 3. 8.

* 1 John 4. 6.

23 These words made his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already that if any man did confesse that he was Christ, he should be put out of the Synagogue.
24 Therefore said his parents, he is of age, ask him.
25 Then again called they the man that was blinde, and said unto him, Give God the praise, for we know that this man is a sinner.
26 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not; one thing I know, that whereas I was blinde, now I see.
27 Then said they to him again, What didst thou do to thee, how opened he thine eyes?
28 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not heare: wherefore would ye heare it again? will ye also be his disciples?
29 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we are Apostles of Christ.
30 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.
31 The man answered and said unto them, Wherfore herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
32 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doth his will, him he heareth.
33 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blinde.
34 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.
35 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sinnes, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.
36 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Sonne of God?
37 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?
38 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.
39 And he said, Lord, I believe: and he worshipped him.
40 And Jesus said, For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.
41 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, We be Jews also?
42 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blinde, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We be Jews, therefore ye are sinners remaineth.

CHAPTER XXIIII

Verily verily I say unto you, Whosoever heareth not by the word in the Scriptures, but climbeth up on the shoulders of man, and teacheth men, the same shall be called a robber.
2 But he that entereth in by the doore, is the shepherd of the sheep.
3 To him the porter opened: and the sheep heare his voice, and he calleth by their name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he putteth forth his voice, they heare before him, and the sheep follow him: for he knoweth his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.
6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily verily I say unto you, I am the doore of the sheep.
8 All that ever came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not heare them.
9 I am the doore, by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and finde pasture.
10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12 But he that is an hireling and not the shepherd, whose owne the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.
15 As the father knoweth me, even so know I the father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall heare my voice: and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.
17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life: that I might take it again.
18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of my self: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.
19 I There was a division, therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
20 And many of them said, We have a devil, and is mad, why heare ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil: can a devil open the eyes of the blinde?
22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
26 My sheep heare my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.
27 My Father giveth unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
28 My Father, which giveth them life, is greater than all: and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
29 I and my Father are one.
30 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
31 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father, for which of these would ye stone me?
32 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy, and

* Psa. 82.6.

34 Jesus answered them, * Is it not written in your law, I said ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken:

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the sonne of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand.

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized, and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man, were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus four dayes buried. 45 Many Jews believe. 47 The high priests and Pharisees gather a counsel against Christ. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hid himself. 55 At the passover they enquire after him, and lay wait for him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethanie, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

* Mai. 26.7.

2 (* It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest, is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Betsa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that, he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth, but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there (to the intent ye may believe) nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 When Jesus therefore heard that he was sick, he said unto his disciples, Let us go also into Iherusalem,

18 (For our sakes, that we may believe in him, that he is the Son of God.)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, * I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus saith unto her, I am the resurrection and the * life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live;

26 And whosoever liveth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and laid him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groined in the spirit, and was troubled.

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, even and so.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold now he weepeth

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again grooving in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he is stinketh: for he had been dead four dayes.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Thinke I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound with his feet, and his hands.

¶ Chap. 13.

was bound with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we : for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him : and the Romanes shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Calaphas, being the high priest that same years, said unto them, We know nothing at all.

50 ¶ For consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself : but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation :

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews : but went thence unto a country nare to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, & there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews passtover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passtover, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, How can we think ye, that he will not come to the feast ?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he was, he should shew it : that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

¶ Jesus exhorteth Mary anointing his feet. 9 The people seek to see Lazarus. 10 The high priests consult to kill him. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeke desire to see Jesus. 22 He foretelleth his death. 37 The Jews are generally blinded : 42 yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confesse him : 44 therefore Jesus walketh earnestly for confession of feith.

¶ Then Jesus, six dayes before the passtover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he called from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served : but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment, of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair : and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, which should betray him, why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poore ?

5 This he said, not that he cared for the poore : but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

¶ Then saith Jesus, Let her alone, against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poore alwayes ye have with you : but me ye have not alwayes.

9 ¶ Many people of the Jews therefore, which came to him, believed on him, not for Jesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had called from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death :

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, * Mat. 21, 9.

13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and such, Hosanna, blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus when he had found a young asse, sat thereon, as it is written, 15 ¶ Fear not, daughter of Sion, behold thy King cometh sitting on an asse colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first : but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing : behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast :

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and crieth Andrew : and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man should be glorified.

24 Verily verily I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone : but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ¶ He that loveth his life, shall lose it : and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal. * Mat. 10, 39.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant be : if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say : Father save me from this houre : but for this cause came I unto this houre :

28 Father glorifie thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered : others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgement of this world : now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 ¶ This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, ¶ We have heard one of the law, that Christ abideth for ever : and now sayest thou, The Sonne of man must be lifted up : what is this Sonne of man ?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you, walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you : for he that ¶ Chap. 13.

* Psal. 110, 4.

that walketh in darkness, and setteth not together he goeth.

36 White ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But because he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Elias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he saith, * Lord, who hath believed our report: and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Elias said again.

40 ¶ He had blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Elias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed on him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him; lest they should be put out of the Synagogue.

43 ¶ For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried, & said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 ¶ I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me, should not abide in darkness.

47 ¶ And if any man heare my words and believe not, I judge him not, for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: * the world that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of my self, but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, & what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whosoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Jesus washeth the disciples feet: exhorteth them to humility and charity. 18 He foretelleth and discovereth to John by a token, that Judas should betray him: 31 com-mendeth them to love one another: 36 and forewarneth
Peter of his denial.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world, unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him.

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towel, & girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples feet, & to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee now, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet; but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore saith he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again: he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord: and ye say well, for so I am.

14 If I then you Lord & Master have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one anothers feet:

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily I say unto you, The servant is not greater then his Lord, neither he that is sent, greater then he that hath sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all, I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, * He that eateth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.

19 ¶ Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 ¶ Verily, verily I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 ¶ When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, & said, Verily, verily
I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosome, one of his disciples whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore breketh to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon.

27 And after the sop, Satan entered into him.
Then said Jesus unto him, What thou doest, quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bagge that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast: or that he should give something to the poore.

30 He then having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himself, and shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me, and as I said unto the Jews, sother I go, ye cannot come, so now I say unto you.

34 ¶ A new commandment I give unto you,
That ye love one another, as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

27 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

28 Jesus answered him, saying, thou layest down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, the cock shall not crow till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples with the hope of heaven;
6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, and one with the Father; 13 assurh their prayers in his name to be effectual: 15 queseth love and obedience: 16 describeth the Holy Ghost, the Comforter: 27 and teacheth them to love one another.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto my self, that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it is sufficient us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hath you not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father: and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: the works that I speak unto you, I speak not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believest thou that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believest thou that I speak lies?

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father.

13 And whosoever shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments. 16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.

17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you a comfortless, I will come to you.

19 ¶ He a little while, and the world seeth me no more: but ye see me, because I live, yet shall I live.

20 ¶ At that day ye shall know, that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 ¶ He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me, and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest my self to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Alexander, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which you hear, is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, lest ye should be taken with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 ¶ Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you: for not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 ¶ Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it comes to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 ¶ Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do: that, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

1 The communion and unity of the Father and the Son, and the members of the church, under the parable of the vine: 28 the comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world, 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, and of the apostles.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 ¶ Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he I will cut away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 ¶ Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine: no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 ¶ If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 ¶ Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 ¶ If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love: even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12. This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13. Greater love hath no man then this: that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14. Be ye my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15. Whosoever I call you not servants, for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth, but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

16. Do ye not chide me, but I have chosen you, and abided you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whosoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17. These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19. If ye were of the world, the world would love his children: because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20. Remember the word that I said unto you: The servant is not greater then the lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my sayings, they will keep yours also.

21. But all these things will they do unto you for my names sake: because they know not him that sent me.

22. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24. If I had not come among them, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen, and hated both me and my Father.

25. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law,

They shall hate thee without cause.

26. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he will testify of me.

27. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

1. Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, and his resurrection and ascension. 2. Affirmeth that he will abide in his name to be acceptable to his Father. 3. Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth God service.

3. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5. But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me: whither goest thou?

2. These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

3. Whosoever I call you not servants, for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth, but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

4. And when he is come, he will receive the words of mine, and of righteousness, and of judgement.

5. Of mine, because they believed not on me.

6. Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more.

7. Of judgement, because the prince of this world is judged.

8. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

9. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself: but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come.

10. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

11. All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

12. A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

13. Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while and ye shall not see us: and again, a little while and ye shall see us: and, Because I go to the Father?

14. They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while: we cannot tell what he saith.

15. Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of what I said, A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while and ye shall see me?

16. Verily I say unto you, that ye shall weep & lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

17. A woman when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish: for joy that a man is born into the world.

18. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

19. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing: Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

20. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

21. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

22. At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will ask the Father for you:

23. For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

24. I came forth from the Father, and have the Father, and go to the Father.

25. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also: and he that hateth my Father, hateth me also: and I will come to him, and will take away his portion, that he may have all the more of mine.

26. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

27. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

28. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

29. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

30. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

31. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

32. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

33. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

34. Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him, and shall be his belly, and shall be his joy.

* Chap. 11.

50.

* Mat. 26, 13.

14. Now Caiaphas had he said, that counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15. ¶ And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16. But Peter stood at the door without.
Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and took him in that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17. Then said the damsel that kept the door, unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He saith, I am not.

18. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19. ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world, I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers, which stood by, stroke Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23. Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24. ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25. And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: ¶ They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26. One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman, whose ear Peter cut off) saith,
Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27. Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28. ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgement: and it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgement hall, lest they should be defiled: but that they might eat the passover.

29. Pilate then went out unto them, and said,
What accusation bring you against this man?

30. They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32. That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33. ¶ Then Pilate entered into the judgement hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him,
Art thou the king of the Jews?

34. Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or do others tell thee of me?

35. Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? thine own nation, and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36. Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, A kingdom shall I have: for this cause have I borne witness, that this cause was: I said the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth: every one that is of the truth, beareth my voice.

38. Pilate then said unto him, What is truth?
And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and said unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passtover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

40. ¶ Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten.

1. Pilate is desirous to release him, but being overcome with the courage of the Jews, he delivered him to be crucified. 2. They cast lots for his garment. 26. He commendeth his mother to John. 28. He is pierced.
31. His side is pierced. 33. He is buried by Joseph and Nicodemus.

¶ Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe.

3. And said, Hail king of the Jews: and they smote him with their hands.

4. Pilate therefore went forth again, and said unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde no fault in him.

5. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe: and Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man.

6. When the chief priests therefore & officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7. The Jews answered him, We have law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Sonne of God.

8. ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid.

9. And went again into the judgement hall, and said unto Jesus, Answerest thou me? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10. ¶ Then said Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to release thee?

11. Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivereth me unto thee hath the greater sinne.

12. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsars friend:
whosoever maketh himself a king, he opposeth himself against Cæsar.

13. ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgement hall: for a place that is called the pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your king.

15. But they cried out, Away with him, away with him: crucifie him: crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar.

20 And when he had said this, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

25 ¶ The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord: but he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight dayes, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord, and my God.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appearing again to his disciples, was known of them by the great draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 15 earnestly commandeth Peter to feed his lambs and sheep: 18 setteth him of his death: 22 rebuketh his curiositie touching John. 25 The conclusion.

After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and on this wise shewed he himself:

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately: and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, I tell you, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he saith unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Whereupon that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fishers coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come up, whether saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish, which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iohn, lovest thou me more than these? he saith unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. he saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon sonne of Iohn, lovest thou me? he saith unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. he saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon sonne of Iohn, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he saith unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Gladly verily I say unto thee, when thou wast young, thou girdest thy self, and waldest; whether thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, and what shall this man do?

21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 These went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said unto him, he shall not die: but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

25 ¶ And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

1 Christ preparing his apostles to the beholding of his glorious ascension, gathereth them together into the mount Olivet, commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the holy Ghost, promiseth after few dayes to send it: by vertue whereof they should be witnesses unto him, even to the utmost parts of the earth. 2 After his ascension they are visited by two angels to depart, and to see their murders upon the second coming. 3 They accordingly return, and giving themselves to prayer, whose Matthias apostle in the place of Judas.

The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, Untill the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles, whom he had chosen.

2 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them foure dayes, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And I being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father: which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many dayes hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power after that the holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had said these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come, in like manner, as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-dayes journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zeotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer, and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of the names together were about an hundred and thienty)

16 Brethren, my scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the pelfwain of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, inasmuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Accellams, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: And his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be chosen to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they praye, and say, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen.

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAP. II.

1 The apostles filled with the holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are admired by some, and desired by others. 2 Whom Peter disproofing, and shewing that the apostles spake by the power of the holy Ghost, that Jesus was risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, had poured down the same holy Ghost, and was the Messiah, a man known to them to be approved of God by his miracles, wonders, and signes, and not crucified without his determinate counsel, and foreknowledge: 37 he bewitcheth a great number that were converted: 41 who afterwards devoutly and charitably converse together: the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them:

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans?

8 And how hear we them speak in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia,

10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and in the parts of Libya, about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing up with the eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel,

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, (saith God) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants, and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit, and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 ¶ The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 ¶ Ye men of Israel, hear these words, Jesus of Nazareth a man approved of God among you, by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David's sake, concerning him, forsook the Lord all things, saying my face, for he is on my right hand; that I should not be moved.

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad: moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the wayes of life, thou shalt make me full of thy love, and thy countenance.

29 ¶ Men and brethren, let me now speak unto you of the patriarch David, who is dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day:

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ, to sit on his throne:

31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 ¶ This Jesus hath God raised up, wherein we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he saith himself, ¶ The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand:

35 Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 ¶ Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sinnes; and ye shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayer.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

47 ¶ Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

- 3 Peter preaching to the people that came to see a lame man restored in his feet, 12 professed the cure not to have been wrought by his, or John's own power, or holiness, but by God; and his name Jesus, and through faith in his name: 13 withal representing them for crucifying Jesus. 17 Which because they did in ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled Gods decrements counsel, and the scripture: 19 he exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple, at the hours of prayer, beginning the ninth hour.

And a certain man lame from his mothers womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask almes of them that entered into the temple.

Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an almes.

And Peter fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.

And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up, and immediately his feet and ancle-bones received strength.

And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

And they knew that it was he which sat for almes at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

And as the lame man which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

But ye denied the holy one, and the just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you.

And killed the prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea the faith which is in him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

And now brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

Repent ye therefore and be converted, that your sinnes may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

And it shall come to passe, that every soul which will not heare that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these dayes.

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAP. IIIII.

The rulers of the Jews offended with Peters sermon,

4 (though thousands of the people were converted that heard the word) imprison him and John. 5 After, upon examination, Peter boldly avouching the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only we must be eternally saved,

13 they command him and John to preach no more in that name, adding also threatening. 23 Whereupon the church fleeth to prayer: 31 and God by moving the place where they were assembled, testified that he heard their prayer, confirming the church with the gift of the holy Ghost, and with mutual love and charity.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,

Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now evening.

Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, believed, and the number of the men was about five thousand.

And it came to passe on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole,

Ye know what we say, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from from the head, even by him which this man standeth before you to wit.

11 * This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing by which they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and repayed all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is.

25 ¶ And by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word.

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the words of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them, that ought of the things which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Sotus, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, The sonne of consolation) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

After that Ananias and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisy at Peters rebuke had fallen down dead, 12 and that the rest of the apostles had wrought many miracles,

14 to the increase of the faith: by the apostles are again imprisoned, 19 are delivered by an angel, bidding them to preach openly to all: 21 When, after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 29 and before the council, 33 they are in danger to be killed, through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counsellor among the Jews, they are kept alive, 40 & are in heaven: for which they glorify God, and cause us to day from fearing.

But a certain man named Ananias with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hast thou filled thine heart? so to lie to the holy Ghost, and so keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghost: and a great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three houres after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband, are at the door, and shall catch thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway upon her face, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people: (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join him-left to them : but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.

Or, in every street.

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least, the shadows of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits : and they were healed every one.

Or, envy.

17 ¶ When the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people, all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught : but the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told.

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors : but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest, and the captains of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence : (for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council : and the high priest asked them,

Chap. 4. 18.

28 Saying, Did not we lately command you, that you should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ When Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The Son of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space.

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these dayes rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves : who was slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

Or, beloved

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of the taxing, and drew away much people after him : he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone : for if this counsel, or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed : and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

I The apostles desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, as also careful themselves to dispense the word of God, the food of the soul, 3 Against the office of deaconship to seven chosen men : 5 of whom, Stephen, a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, is one : 12 who is taken of those whom he condemned in disputing, 13 and after falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

And in those dayes, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 When the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the holy Ghost, and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give our selves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude : and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch.

6 Whom they set before the apostles : and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly, and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ When there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then

11 Then they suborned men which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the Scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council.

13 And let up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law.

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sonnes.

30 * And when forty yeares were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. * Exod.3.23

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew neare to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down, to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hands of the angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

CHAP. VII.

1 Stephen permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly, and how God chose the fathers, 20 before Moses was born, and before the tabernacle and temple were built: 37 that Moses himself witnessed of Christ: 44 & that all outward ceremonies were ordained according to the heavenly pattern to last but for a time: 51 reprehending their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the just one, whom the prophets foretold should come into the world: 54 whereupon they stone him to death, who commendeth his soul to Jesus, and humbly prayeth for them.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred yeares.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage, will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

 hand of God.
 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their eares, and ran upon him with one accord.
 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAP. VIII.

By occasion of the persecution in Jerusalem, the church being planted in Samaria 5 by Philip the deacon, who preached, did miracles, and baptized many, among the rest Simon the sorcerer, a great seducer of the people; 14 Peter and John come to confirm, and enlarge the church: where by prayer, and imposition of hands, giving the holy Ghost, 18 when Simon would have bought the like power of them, 20 Peter sharply reproving his hypocrisie, and co-venousnesse, and exhorting him to repentance, together with John preaching the word of the Lord, return to Jerusalem. 26 But the angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

AND Saul was consenting unto his death.
 And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his buriall, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them:
 and many taken with palsies, and that were lame were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which before-time in the same city used sorcerie, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one.

10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they heard Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John.

15 And when they were come down, they prayed for them, that they might receive the holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus)

CHAP. IX.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that though laying on of the apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money.

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritanas.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Isaiah the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? and he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation, his judgement was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: & they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

1 Saul going towards Damascus, & 4 he stricken down to the earth, 10 is called to the apostleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananias. 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Jews lay wait to kill him; 29 he do the Grecians: but he escapeth both. 31 The church having rest, Peter healeth Aeneas of the palsey, 36 and resurrects Tabitha to life.

And Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed he came neare Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three dayes without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street, which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas, for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to binde all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive the sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Sonne of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 * But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joy himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in, and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works, and alms-deeds, which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And so much as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

for, he grieved,

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them: when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed, and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And he opened her eyes, and when he saw Peter, he sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up: and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he carried many others in Joppa with him, and Simon a tanner.

CHAP. X.

1 Cornelius a devout man, & being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision, 15, 30 is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company, 44 the holy Ghost falleth on them, 48 and they are baptised.

There was a certain man in Caesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually.

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow as they went on their journey, and were nigh unto the cite, Peter went up upon the house top to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the aire.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen, should mean: behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made inquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them: and on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea: and Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and neare friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up, I my self also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gain-saying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this houre, and at the ninth houre I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call thither Simon whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side; who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that art commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, * Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)

37 What word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached:

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem, whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly,

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses, chosen before of God, even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead.

43 ¶ To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whatsoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sinnes.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptised, which have received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptised in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAP. XI.

1 Peter being accused for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them. 26 The disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the cite of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me.

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the aire.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, three sic brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the mans house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter:

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, * John indeed baptizeth with water: but ye shall be baptised with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the

* Chap. 8. 1.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as farre as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews onely.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then things of these things came unto the eares of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as farre as Antioch.

23 Also when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole yeare they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people, and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these dayes came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world, which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwell in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivereth upon the prayer of the church. 20 In his pride, taking to himselfe the honour due to God, he is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death the word of God prospereth.

¶ Or, began.

Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further, to take Peter also. (Then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to foure quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

¶ Or, instant and earnest prayer was made.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison.

7 And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thy selfe, and kinde on the sandals: and so he did. And he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his owne accord: and they went out, and passed on though one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the doore of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

¶ Or, to ask who was there.

14 And when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doore, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckening unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, God shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stirre among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the kings chamberlain their friend, desired peace: because their country was nourished by the kings country.

¶ Or, bare an hostile minde, intending warre.
¶ Or, that was the kings bed-chamber.

21 And upon a set day, Herod arrayed in royall apparell, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John whose surname was Mark.

¶ Or, charge, Chap. 12, 29, 30.

CHAP. XIII.

- 1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles.
 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer.
 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ.
 42 The Gentiles beleve: 45 but the Jews gain say, and blaspheme: 46 whereupon they turn to the Gentiles.
 48 As many as were ordained to life, beleved.

NOW there were in the church that was at Antioch, certain prophets and teachers: as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the work wherunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone throught the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjatus:

7 which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man: who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right wayes of the Lord?

11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, not seeing the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness, and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy when he saw what was done, beleved, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company looked from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, & went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckening with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people: when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty yeares I suffered by their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that, he gave unto them judges, about the space of foure hundred and fifty yeares, untill Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king, and God gave unto them Saul the sonne of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty yeares.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimonie, and said, I have found David the sonne of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfill all my will.

23 Of this mans seed hath God according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to looke.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many dayes of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again, as it is also written in the second psalme, Thou art my sonne, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to returne to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he said also in another psalme, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 For David I after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that though this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sinnes, 39 And by him all that beleve are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets, 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your dayes, a work which ye shall in no wise beleve, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews, & religious proselytes followed Paul & Barnabas, who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envie, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas wared bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life: lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, * I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 * But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra Paul healeth a creeple, whereupon they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They passe through divers churches, confirming the disciples: in faith and patience. 26 Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimonie unto the word of his grace, and granted signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, & to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about.

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man as Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a creeple from his mothers womb, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak, who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand up right on thy feet; and he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker, 13 Then the priest of Jupiter which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? we also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, * which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

16 * Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Wherefore he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, * and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia, 26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the doore of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

Great dissension ariseth touching circumcision. 6 The apostles consult about it. 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and depart asunder.

And certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, * Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul & Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when they had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, * Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us :

9 And put no difference between us and them, * purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, * to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear ?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 Simon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down: and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will let it up :

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God :

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath-day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas : namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner. The apostles, and elders, and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law, to whom we gave no such commandment :

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that have hazarded their lives, for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, & from things strangled, and from fornication : from which if ye keep your selves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch : and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had carried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some dayes after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again, and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other : and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul having circumcised Timothee, 7 and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 14 converted Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doores are opened. 31 The journey is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

Then came he to Derbe and Lystra : and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the sonne of a certain woman which was a Jewesse, and believed : but his father was a Greek :

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him, and took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters : for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, * that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia & the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Byzantion, they intended to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Byzantion, came down to Thrace.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuringly gathering, that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Thrace, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when he was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and abide there. And he constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel, possessed with a spirit of divination, met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul, and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days: but Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place, unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they call them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely.

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang psalms unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he wakened his sword, & would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thy self no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the words of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison, and now do they thrust us out privily: may verily, but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica: 4 where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, he cometh to Athens, and dispersed and preached the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead: and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew to Jason, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also.

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying, that there is another king, one Jesus.

and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drove them from the judgement-seat.

17 When all the Jews took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this, tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila: having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But had them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh, in Jerusalem; but I will return again unto you, * if God will: and he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to passe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ The holy Ghost is given by Pauls hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles.

13 The Jewish exorcists: 16 are beaten by the devil.

19 Conjurings books are burnt. 24 Demetrius, for love of gain raiseth an uproar against Paul, 35 which is appeased by the town-clerk.

And it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye believed? and they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Johns baptism.

4 Then said Paul, * John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul.

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their needs.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia & Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stirre about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen.

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshipeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, What is Diana of the Ephesians.

* 1 Cor. 4. 19.

* Matt. 3. 11.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, let the law be open, and there are deputies, let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this dayes uprore, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletus he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth Gods flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

And after the uprore was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece.

3 And there abode three moneths: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return througħ Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus: and Gaius of Derbe and Timotheus: and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at Troas. 6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the dayes of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep, and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not your selfes, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go aloft.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllian: and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of minde, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: 20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, & have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions shall abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my self; so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto your selves, and to all the flock, over the which the holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of three yeares, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give then to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more.

And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

Paul will not by any means be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philips daughters prophetesses. 17 Paul cometh to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in great danger, 31 but by the chief captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

And it came to passe, that after we were gotten from them, and had lanchen, we came with a straight courte unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven dayes: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those dayes, we departed, and went our way, and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Pauls company departed, and came unto Cesarea, and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, (* which was one of the seven) and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come untous, he took Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem binde the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place, brought him woe to go up to Jerusalem.

13 When Paul answered, what mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James, and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they all are zealous of the law.

21 And they are informed of thee that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore the multitude must needs come together: for they will heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: we have sower men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purifie thy self with them, and be at charges with them, that they may have their hearts: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleve, * we have written and concluded, that they observe no such thing, save onely that they keep themselves from things offered to Idols, & from blood, and from strangles, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, * to signify the accomplishment of the dayes of purification, untill that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Gen of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and farther, though heeke also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the cite, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and with him out of the temple: and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, the king came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uprore.

32 Who immediately took soldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came neare & took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and demanded of him what he was, and what he had done.

And it came to passe that after we were gotten from them and had lanchen we came to Coos the day following unto Rhodes and from thence unto Patara And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia we went aboard and set forth Now when we had discovered Cyprus we left it on the left hand and sailed into Syria and landed at Tyre for there the ship was to unlade her burden And finding disciples we tarried there seven dayes who said to Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem And when we had accomplished those dayes we departed and went our way and they all brought us on our way with wives and children till we were out of the city and we kneeled down on the shore and prayed And when we had taken our leave one of another we took ship and they returned home again And when we had finished our course from Tyre we came to Ptolemais and saluted the brethren and abode with them one day And the next day we that were of Pauls company departed and came unto Cesarea and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist (* which was one of the seven) and abode with him And the same man had four daughters virgins which did prophesie And as we tarried there many dayes there came down from Judaea a certain prophet named Agabus And when he was come untous he took Pauls girdle and bound his own hands and feet and said Thus saith the holy Ghost So shall the Jews at Jerusalem binde the man that owneth this girdle and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles And when we heard these things both we and they of that place brought him woe to go up to Jerusalem

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the multitude, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was hurt of the soldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? And he said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes madeest an uprise, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a citie in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean citie: and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckened with the hand unto the people: and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

13 Count unto me, and heed, and hearken unto me, Brether Saul, receive thy life. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that just one, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Awake haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I am imprisoned, and beat in every Synagogue them that belevee on thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyrs Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bad that he should be examined by scourging: that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou dost, for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great summe obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appeare, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Paul declareth at large, how he was converted to the faith, 17 and called to his apostleship. 22 As the very mentioning of the Gentiles, the people exclaim on him. 24 He should have been scourged, 25 but claiming the priviledge of a Roman he escapeth.

Men, brethren, and fathers, heare ye my defence, which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he said)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus a citie in Cilicia, yet brought up in this citie, at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to passe, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which art appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwell there,

236

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou dost judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou Gods high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadduces, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: * of the hope and resurrection of the dead, I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadduces: and the multitude was divided.

8 * For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit; but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove saying, We finde no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lords stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye bid the council, signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come neare, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called us unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee: who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to kill thee: that thou thoudest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there is he in wait for him of them more then forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third houre of the night, 24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governour.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner.

26 Claudius Lysias, unto the most excellent governour Felix, tendereth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle.

33 And so when they came to Cesarea and delivered the epistle to the governour, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governour had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia:

35 I will heare thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 do sweareth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to the governour and his wife. 26 The governour heareth for a while, but in vain. 27 At last, going out of his office, he leaveth Paul in prison.

And after five dayes, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who entomped the governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietnesse, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it alwayes, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I say thee, that thou wouldest heare us of thy clemency a few wordes.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple:

temple; whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lyllas came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands.

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thy self mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul after that the governor had beckened unto him to speak, answered, so much as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for my self:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve dayes since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people: neither in the synagogues, nor in the cite:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call herse, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and the prophetes.

15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise my self, to have alwayes a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years, I came to bring almes to my nation, and offerings.

¶ Chap. 21. 27

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asis found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have bern here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council.

¶ Chap. 23. 6.

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledges of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lyllas the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, So thy way for this time, when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

27 But after two years, Porcius Festus came into Felix rooin: and Felix willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

¶ The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself. 11 & appealeth unto Cesar. 14 Afterwards, Festus openeth his matter to king Agrippa. 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

Now when Festus was come into the province, after three dayes he ascended from Celsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priests, and the chief of the Jews enformed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Celsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickednesse in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more then ten dayes, he went down unto Celsarea, and the next day sitting in the judgement seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

¶ Or, as some copies read, no more then eight or ten dayes.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things a before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Celsars judgement seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to inter: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus when he had conferred with the council, answered, hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain dayes, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Celsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls case unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews enformed me, desiring to have judgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romanes to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come thither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgement seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Actus, which ment.

was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man my self. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principall men of the cite, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord: wherefore I have thought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withall to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

2 Paul in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeh him to be mad, whereunto he answered modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost perswaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself,

2 I think my self happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for my self this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 which know me from the beginning, (if they would testify) that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come:
for which hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with my self, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme: and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 * Whereupon as I went to Damascus, * Chap. 9 with authority and commission from the chief priests:

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sunne, shining round about me, and then which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth,
I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not obedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Psalms did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul thou art beside thy self, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, beleevest thou the prophetes?
I know that thou belevest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me this day, were both a Jewish, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rode up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man

man might have been let at liberty, if he had not appeared unto Cæsar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 foretellers of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not believed. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwreck, 43, 44, yet all come safe to land.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian, of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Epphus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the winds not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone :

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The fair havens, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not onely of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Wherefore, I beseech the centurion to let the master and the owner of the ship, move then those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lyeth toward the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat :

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship, 19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have cheered with me, and not have looked from Crete, and to have gained this harm and losse :

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by us this night the angel of God whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not Paul, thou must be brought before Cæsar; and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they were nere to some country :

28 And founds, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the five ship, 31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat, for this is for your health : for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all, and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land : but they discovered a certain creek, with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to runn in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the main sail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where shoas meet, they ran the ship aground, and the fore-part stuck fast, and remained unmovable, but the hinder-part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land :

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship : and so it came to pass that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul after his shipwrack is kindly entertained of the Barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand bitteth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the island. 11 They depart towards Rome. 17 He declares to the Jews the cause of his coming. 24 After his preaching some were persuaded, and some beleved not. 30 Let be presbith there two yeres.

And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarians people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the Barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he had escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a God.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to passe that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux, to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed.

10 And he also honoured us with many honours, and when he departed, they saved us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose signe was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we set a compass, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the southwinde blew, and we came the next day to Malta.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven dayes: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as farre as Appollonia, and the Three Tavernes: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customes of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 And who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither receive letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewing of spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some beleved the things which were spoken, and some beleved not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, I will speak the holy Ghost by Caias the prophet, unto our fathers.

26 Saying, * Go unto this people, and say, * In 6. 9. Mark 13. 14. Mark 4. 12. Luke 8. 10. John 12. 45. Rom. 11. 8.

Hearing ye shall heare, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed: lest they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and understand with their heart; and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will heare it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed: and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole yeares in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

the apostle, to the ROMANES.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romanes, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sinners. 21 What were the sinners of the Gentiles.

PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

(which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures)

2 Concerning his Sonne Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And declared to be the Sonne of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name.

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Sonne, that without ceasing I make mention of you alwayes in my prayers.

10 Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established.

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutuall faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (but was let hitherto) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them, for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse.

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped & served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working that which is unclean, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despitefull, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing the judgement of God (that they which commit such things, are worthy of death) not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

1 They that sense, though they condemn it in others, excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgement of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape. 17 nor yet the Jews, 21 whose their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, who-soever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy self; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgement of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and dost the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?

4 We despise thee that ridest of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law : and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law,

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.)

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having not the law, are a law unto themselves.

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, * their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts * the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another.)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God :

18 And knowest his will, and * approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,

19 And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God :

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is * written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law : but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men but of God.

1 The Jews persegutive : 2 Which they have not lost, 9 Howbeit, the law convinceth them also of foene, 20 Therefore no flesh is justified by the law, 28 but all without difference, by faith only : 31 and yet the law is not abolishe.

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, * That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how should God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, Let us do evil, that good may come: whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better then they? No in no wise: for we have before * proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sinne.

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips :

14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their wayes:

17 And the way of peace have they not known.

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sinne.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 When the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ :

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sinnes that are past, through the forbearance of God,

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

† Gr. charged.

|| Or, subject to the judgement of God.

|| Or, foreordained.
|| Or, passing over.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. III.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith one by he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly; his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision onely, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 Now was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision onely, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham; or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace, to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.

17 (As it is written, * I have made thee a father of many nations) // before him whom he believed, even God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were:

18 Who against hope, believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken, * So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, which he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him:

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope, 8 that faith we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sinne and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ, 20 Where sinne abounded, grace did superabound.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely so, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience:

4 And patience, experience: and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son: much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne: and so death passed upon all men, // for that all have sinned.

13 For untill the law sinne was in the world: but sinne is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned, after the similitude of Adams transgression,

* Gen. 17. 5.
† Or, like unto him.

* Gen. 17. 5.

† Or, according to the time.

† Or, in whom

14 For the figure of him that was to come :

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift : for the judgement was by one to condemnation : but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one mans offence, death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgement came upon all men to condemnation : even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners : so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

20 Wherefore, the law entered, that the offence might abound : but where sinne abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sinne hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

1 We may not live in sinne, 2 For we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptisme. 12 Let not sinne reigne any more, 18 because we have yielded our selves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sinne.

What shall we say then? shall we continue in sinne, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid : what shall we that are dead to sinne, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptised into Jesus Christ, were baptised into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father : even so we also should walk in newnesse of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death : we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection :

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sinne once, but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sinne : but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne therefore reigne in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousnesse unto sinne : but yield your selves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sinne shall not have dominion over you : for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 Where then shall we live sinne, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield your selves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey : whether of sinne unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked that ye were the servants of sinne, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity, even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sinne, ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sinne, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death : but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer then he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Tet is not the law sinne, 12 but holy, just, good, 16 as I acknowledge who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law) how that the law hath dominion over a man, as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth : but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteresse : but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law : so that she is no adulteresse, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sinne which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held, that we should serve in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? is the law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sinne, but by the law : for I had not known I lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sinne taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence, for without the law sinne was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, sinne revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sinne taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 What then shall we say that which is good, made death unto us? God forbid. But sinne that it might appear appears sinne, looking death in me by that which is good : that sinne by the commandment may become speedier sinfull.

14 For we knowe that the law is spirituell : but I am carnall, sold under sinne.

† Gr. know.

15 For that which I do, I allow not : for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that do it : but sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing : for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good, I finde not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man.

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my minde, and bringing me into captivite to the law of sinne, which is in my members.

Or, this body of death.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the minde I myself serve the law of God : but with the flesh, the law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation, 3, 13 What harm cometh of free flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of having Gods child, 19 Whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was before hand decreed from Gods 38 What can sever us from his love?

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sinne and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Sonne, in the likeness of sinfull flesh, and for sinne condemned sinne in the flesh :

Or, by a sacrifice for sinne,

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us : who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, do minde the things of the flesh : but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded, is death : but to be spiritually minded, is life and peace :

† Gr. the minding of the flesh.

7 Because the carnall minde is enemie against God : for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

† Gr. the minding of the Spirit.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

† Gr. the minding of the flesh.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne : but the Spirit is life, because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you : he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your immortall bodies, by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

† Or, because of his Spirit.

12 Therefore brethren, knowe your debt, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh :

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die : but if ye through the Spirit do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye have not received the Spirit of bondage again to fear : but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit it self beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ : it is to be that we suffer with him : that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanitie, not willingly, but by reason of his disobedience, that he might bring forth the same in hope :

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth, & travaileth in pain together until now.

† Or, every creature.

23 And not onely they : but our selves also which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we our selves groane within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

† Luk. 21, 26

24 For we are saved by hope : but hope that is seen, is not hope : for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities : for we knowe not what we should pray for as we ought : but the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the minde of the Spirit, I because he maketh intercession for the saints, according to the will of God.

† Or, that

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also hath predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first-borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called : and whom he called, them he also justified : and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Sonne, but delivered him up for us all : how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? I say, rather that he which condemneth, is even as the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or affliction, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Pauls sorrow for the Jews. Romances. God hath mercy on whom he will.

26 (As it is written, "For thy sake we are killed all the day long, we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter")

37 They in all these things we are more than conquerors, though him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with the clay what he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

Or, separated.

3 For I could wish that my self were I accused from Christ, for my brethren my kinsmen according to the flesh:

Or, testimony.

4 Who are Israelites: to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises:

5 Whereof are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect: for they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

Gen. 21.

7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

Gen. 18.

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac, 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

Rom. 9.

15 For he saith to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, "Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth."

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, "Why doth he yet finde fault? For who hath resisted his will?"

20 Nay, but O man, who art thou that re-to him that formed it, and by what thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the "potter power over the clay," of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

Or, made up.

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory?

24 When us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles:

25 As he saith also in Hosea, "I will call them my people, which were not my people: and her beloved, which was not beloved."

Hos. 2. 13.

26 "And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, 'Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, the children of the living God.'"

Hos. 1. 10.

27 Likewise also crieth concerning Israel, "Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved."

Isa. 10. 22.

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

Or, the account.

29 And as Elias said before, "Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, & been made like unto Gomorrah."

Isa. 1. 9.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness; even the righteousness which is of faith:

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it, not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling stone.

33 As it is written, "Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ashamed."

Isa. 28. 16.

CHAP. X.

The scripture sheweth the difference between the righteousness of the law, and this of faith, 11 and that it is, both Jew and Gentile, that believe, shall not be confounded, 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word, and believe. 19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

But then, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses delivered the righteousness which is of the law, that "the man which doth those things, shall live by them."

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, "Say not in thine heart, 'Gods shall ascend into heaven' (that is to bring Christ down from above)";

7 Or, who shall descend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ again from the dead)";

8 But what saith it? "The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is the word of faith which we preach."

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the the Lord Jesus, and shall beleefe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man belefeeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, * Whosoever belefeeth on him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 * For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved:

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not belefeved: and how shall they beleefe in him of whom they have not heard: and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent: as it is written, * How beautifull are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Elias saith, * Lord, who hath belefeved our report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, * their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, * I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Elias is very bold, and saith, * I was found of them that sought me not: I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, * All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

* God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were hardened though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them. 26 For there is a promise of their salvation. 33 Gods judgments are unsearchable.

ISay then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Note ye not what the scripture saith of Elias: how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars, and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? * I have reserved to me yet seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so when at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace, otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were hardened:

8 According as it is written, * God hath given them the spirit of slumber, * eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not heare unto this day.

9 And David saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompense unto them.

10 * Let their eyes be darkened: that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the I diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more their fulness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation, them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world: what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a tame olive-tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree:

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but fear.

21 For if God spare not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness, and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wilde by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree: how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits) that I blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, * There shall come out of Zion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not belefeved God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not I belefeved, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are gistrates. 2 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 3 Em-briary and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

CHAP. XII.

1 Gods mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Love, and many other duties are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God:
the powers that be, are ordained of God.

Or, ordered

2 And whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil: wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? He that doeth is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good: but if thou do that which is evil, be afraid:
for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues, tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

8 Due no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another, hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not co-bet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely,
Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour:
therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time that now it is salvation nearer than when we believed.

wantonness, not in strife and envying.

* Deut. 32. 19

* Prov. 25. 12

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not consumed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, though the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think: but to think // soberly according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:
5 So we being many are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophetic, let us prophesie according to the proportion of faith.

7 Or, ministry, let us wait on our ministering:
as he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or, he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it // with simplicity: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation: abhorre that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another, // with herberly love, in honour preferring one another.

11 For steadfast in business: fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.

12 Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer.

13 Distributing to the necessity of saints, given to hospitality.

14 Bless them which persecute you, bless and curse not.

15 Rejoyce with them that do rejoyce, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same minde one towards another. Obey the Lord with heart, but // condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own consels.

17 Recompenst to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not your selves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is said.

20 Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord.

21 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him: if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

22 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the meats the Lord he hath not regard it. The chareaten, eaten to the Lord, for he given God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eaten not, and glory God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ died, and rose, and returned, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? we shall all stand before the judgement-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, * As I live saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God:

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing I unclean of it: I doubt to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. * Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things whereby one may edify another.

20 For meat, destroy not the work of God.
* All things indeed are pure, but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat * flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby the brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God: happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith, is sin.

CHAP. XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please our selves, if for Christ did not so, but we exercise one the other, as Christ did so all, & both Jews, & of Gentiles. 3 Paul excused his writing, 28. and promised to see them, 30. and refreshed their prayers.

When that are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself, but as it is written, * He reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written afore-time, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation, grant you to be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 And heretofore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, * Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And again, * Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

12 And again Elias saith, * There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Wherefore then, my brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you, in some sort, as putting you in minde, because of the grace that is given to me of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, manifesting the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glorie through Jesus Christ, in those things which prevail to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Though mighty signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I striven to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another mans foundation:

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard, shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire to see many of you, I have been constrained to come unto you:

24 Wherefore I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem, to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily, & their debtors they are, for if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 And when this shall be done, I will depart thence, and will come unto you, that we may talk together in peace.

CHAP. XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many. 17 and advise them to take heed of those which cause dissension and offences, 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I Commend unto you Phoebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as be-cometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of my self also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Which have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles)

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Gaius, who is the first-fruit of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kin-men and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Ananias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Erastus our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobolus's household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Peris, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Pharobas, Hermas, and the brethren which are
with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an holy kiss.
The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such, serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet
I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

20 And the God of peace shall I besee Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 Timotheus my work-fellow, and Lucius and Jason & Sosipater my kinsmen salute you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius mine host, and of the whole church saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, (according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began.

26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith.)

27 To God only glory, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

of Paul the apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, he exhorts them to unity, 12 and reproves their dissension, 18 God rejoiceth the wisdom of the wise, 21 by the foolishness of preaching, and 26 calleth on the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

And called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and hath shewed our brother.

2 That the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that * are sanctified in Christ Jesus, * called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ,

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge:

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behind in no gift waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

8 And he shall also commend you unto the Lord, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

* 1. Thess. 5. 24. 9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Sonne Jesus Christ our Lord.

† Gr. schismes. 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

* Acts 18. 24. 12 Now this I say, that every one of you say, I am of Paul, and I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 As Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

* Acts 18. 3. 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius.

15 I sit any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanus: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

* 2. Pet. 1. 16. 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness: but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God.

* 1st. 29. 14. 19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

* 1st. 33. 18. 20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

* Rom. 1. 30. 21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

* Matt. 12. 38. 22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block; and unto the Greeks foolishness:

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser then men: and the weakness of God is stronger then men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, nor many mighty, nor many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise: and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty.

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

* Jer. 9. 23. 24. 31 That according as it is written, We that gloryeth, let him glory in the Lord.

1 He declareth that the preaching of the Gospel is by the excellency of speech, or of a humane wisdom: yet confesseth in the 4. 5 power of God: and in verse 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

A 2d I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching, was not with enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world unto our glory.

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual, judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Milk is fit for children. 2 Strife and division, arguments of a fleshy mind. He that planteth, and he that watereth, is nothing. 3 The ministers are Gods fellow-workmen. 4 Christ the only foundation. 5 We are the temple of God. 6 Which must be kept holy. 7 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

A 2d I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, & not with meat:

4th For I know nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 * Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my self, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think of men, above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? And what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us, and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death. For we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place:

12 * And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 * Being despised, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sonnes I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Therefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved sonne, and faithful in the Lord: who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up as though I would not come to you.

19 * But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

22 For ye are carnall: for whereas there is envy among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walk as men?

23 For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnall?

24 Now so then is Paul, and who is Apollo, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

25 I have planted, Apollo watered: but God gave the increase.

26 So then, neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

27 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: * and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

28 For we are labourers together with God: ye are Gods husbandry, ye are Gods building.

29 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

30 For other foundation can no man lay, then that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

31 Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble:

32 Every mans work shall be made manifest. For the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire, and the fire shall try every mans work, of what sort it is.

33 If any mans work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

34 If any mans work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved: yet so, as by fire.

35 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God; and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

36 If any man defile the temple of God, he shall have God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

37 Let no man deceive himself: if any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

38 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, * We takeeth the wise in their own craftiness.

39 And again, * The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

40 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.

41 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours:

42 And ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods.

CHAP. III.

In what account the ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 7 The apostles spectacles to the world, angels and men. 13 the filth and off-scouring of the world: 15 yet our fathers in Christ, & whom we ought to follow.

Let a man to account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Wherever it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of mans judgement: no: I judge not mine own self.

CHAP. V.

The incestuous person & is cause rather of shame unto them, then of rejoycing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Harsh offenders, are to be shamed and avoided.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, & such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.

* 1. Tim. 1. 20

5 To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

* Gal. 5. 9.

6 Your glorying is not good: * know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For

|| Or, is slain.

|| Or, holy day.

even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us.

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railing, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one, no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without, God judgeth.
Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: 6 especially under infidels.

9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 13 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the holy Ghost: 16, 17 they must not therefore be defiled.

DAre any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels?
how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, let them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goest to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another: why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defamed?

8 Nay, you do wrong and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived:
neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind.

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the blessed power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats:
but God shall destroy both it and them: show the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (say he) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joyned unto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that commit-teth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

19 What know ye not that your body is the temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, which are Gods.

CHAP. VII

2 He treateth of marriage, & shewing it to be a remedie against fornication: 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 13, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginitie whosefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects, we may either marrie, or abstain from marrying.

Now concerning the things whereof ye inquire unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife his head, as the church rendereth unto the body, and likewise also the body unto the church.

4 The body hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the church hath not power of his own body, but the body.

5 Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give your selves to fasting and prayer, and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my self: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, & another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and videls, It is good for them if they abide so as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marrie:
for it is better to marrie, than to burn.

10 And unto the married, I command, yet not I, but the Lord, & not the wife depart from her husband.

11 But and if the depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

Of marriage and virginitie. I. Corinthians. Of offending our brethren

854

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and he be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; else were your children unclean, but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

† Or, in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save the husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save the wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk: and so obtain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

† Or, made free.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: like unto also he that is called being free, is Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price, be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgement as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

[Or, necessity.]

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [Or, necessity], I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: neither shall they shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, The time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. Be that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that he may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may call a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need is require, let him do what he will: he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage, doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgement: and I think also that I have the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9, We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must abide our knowledge with charity.

NOW as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge: knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet, as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

Or, for him, Rom. 11:36.

7 Wherefore there is not in them man that knowledge: for his conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol, and their conscience being weak, is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, I care we the better: neither if we eat not, I care we the worse.

Or, have we the more.
Or, have we the less.
Or, power.

9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols:

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 And therefore if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

† Gr, edified.

CHAP. IX.

1 He sheweth his liberie, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained 18 to receive chargeable unto them, 22 as offensive unto any, in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

AND I am not an apostle: am I not free? have I not seen Jesus of Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtlesse I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Come and see to them that do examine me, in this.

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to trade about a sister

Or, woman. 6 As well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

7 O I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

8 And so goeth a warfare any time at his own charges: who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

9 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

Deut. 25. 4. 10 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

11 O saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope: and that he that sowereth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

Rom. 15. 27. 12 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

13 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? suffererlesse, we have not used this power: but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

Deut. 18. 1. 14 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

15 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the gospel, should live of the gospel.

16 But I have used none of these things. Neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my glorying void.

17 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

18 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

19 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

20 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

21 And unto the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them: that are under the law:

22 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

23 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

24 And this I do for the gospel sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

25 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? so run that ye may obtain.

26 And every man that striveth for the victorie, is temperate in all things: shew, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

27 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

28 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

CHAP. X.

1 The sacraments of the Jew, 6 examples of sin, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for us. 14 We must flee from idolatrie. 21 We must not make the Lords table the table of devils: 24 and in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

MEETEST, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea:

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea:

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were: our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, The people did begin to eat and drink, and to rise up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day: there and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 And therefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath as temptation to each one, but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able: but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men: judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For he being made one with death, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one death.

18 Behold I mean after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the chalice is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles * sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lords, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy: are we stronger then he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seek his own: but every man anothers wealth.

25 Wherefore is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

26 For the earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that beleve not, bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not, for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. * The earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.

29 Conscience I say, not thine own, but of the others: for why is my liberty judged of another mans conscience?

30 For, if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that, for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

1 We reproveth them because in holy assemblies 4 these men pray with their heads covered, and 6 women with their heads uncovered, 17 and because generally their meetings, were not for the better, but for the worse, as 21 namely, in profaning with their own flesh and words, 22 saying, 23 Lastly, he rebuketh them in the first in private words.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the * ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ: and the head of the woman, is the man, and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

But every woman that prayeth or prophesie with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but it is to be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For as the church is saved by his blood, so much as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.

9 As the church was the man created for the woman: but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the angels.

11 As the church is saved by his blood, so much as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man, neither the woman without the man in the church.

12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the church also of the man: but all things of God.

13 Judge in your selves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doubt not even nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that you come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly desire it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved, may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other, his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lords Supper, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lords unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge our selves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at nation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

ment!

CHAP. XII.

1 Spiritual gifts are divers, 7 ye all to possesse withall.
8 And to that end are diversly bestowed. 12 That by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body and all to the 16 mutual decency, 22 service, and 26 succour of the same body: 27 so we should do one for another, to make up the mystical body of Christ.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren,
I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these waste tools, when as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth this thus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

|| Or, anathema.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit, is given to every man to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit, the word of wisdom, to another the word of knowledge
by the same Spirit:

9 To another faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 To another the working of miracles, to another prophecies, to another discerning of spirits, to another divers kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

† Gr. Greeks.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members, every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour, and our un-comely parts have more abundant comeliness.

|| Or, put on.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked.

25 That there should be no schism in the body: but that the members should have the same care one for another.

|| Or, division.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

|| Or, kinds.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

|| Or, powers.

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? no all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent favour, as such are worth without charitie. 4 The praises thereof, and 13 prela-men before hope and faith.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charitie, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecies,
I understand all mysteries and all knowledge:
and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have no charitie, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charitie, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charitie suffereth long, and is kinde: she riseth amidst not: charitie is humbly not: she is not puffed up.

|| Or, is not rally.

5 Doth not behave it self unkindly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil.

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquitie, but rejoiceth in the truth:

|| Or, with the truth.

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charitie never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesse in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a childe, I understood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

|| Or, reasoned.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly, but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charitie, these three, but the greatest of these is charitie.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Prophecie is commended, 2, 3, 4, and preferred before speaking with tongues, 5 by a comparison drawn from musical instruments, 12 Both must be referred to edification, 22 as to their true and proper end. 26 The true use of each is taught, 29 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the church.

Follow after charitie: and bestes spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man [†] understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is pipen or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battell?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words [†] that be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the aire.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh, as a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, so much as ye are zealous [†] of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the church.

13 And therefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Like when thou shalt blest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at the giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou bestly givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more then you all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, then ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be ye men.

21 In the law it is written, with men of other tongues and other lips, will I speak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 And therefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleeveth, but to them that beleeveth not: but prophesying serveth not for them that beleeveth not, but for them which beleeveth:

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, & there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeveth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all.

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and he falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 Now is it then brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church, and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of [†] confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the Lord.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you, are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 And therefore brethren, covet to prophesie, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAP. XV.

3 By Christ's resurrection, it is proved the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them that shall be found alive at the last day.

Meaning brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand.

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory [†] what I preached unto you, unless ye have beleeveth in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sinnes according to the scriptures;

† Or, hold fast.

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James, then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of us also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain: but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me:

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believe.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that sleep.

21 For since by mans came death, by mans came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterwards they that are Christs, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God even the Father, when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet; but when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which do put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Sonne also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him: that God may be all in all.

29 We know that all things are brought to the dead, if the dead rise not at all: why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoycing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Epheesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not: let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 I write to righteousness, and some notwithstanding have not the knowledge of God, I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Now are the dead raised up? and with what bodies do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kinde of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead, it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, it is raised a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickning spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortall shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, alwayes abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

1 The exhortation sheweth to relieve the want of the brethren 2 Jerusalem: 10 commendeth Timothy: 13 and after friendly admonition, 16 flourish up his epistle with direct salutation.

NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberalities unto Jerusalem.

16. 511.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey, whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way, but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will carry at Ephesus until December.
9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto us, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear, for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but constant him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come at this time: but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I desired you brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have advised themselves to the ministry of the saints)

16 That ye submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours:
therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you: greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema, Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus.
Amen.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Ephesus, by Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE

of Paul the apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the consolation and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia: 12 and calling both his own conscience, and theirs, to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, at proceeding not of lightness, but of his lenity towards them.

Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia.

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And wherewith we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectually wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also in suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.

9 But we had the sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 We so desired us from to great a death, and death deliverer: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, then what you read, or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, then as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Or, grace.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a second benefit.

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

Or, preaching.

18 But as God is true, our way toward you, was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you, in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God.

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the labour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the labour of death unto death: and to the other, the labour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Or, deal deceitfully with.

CHAP. III.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vain glory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon making a comparison between the ministers of the law, and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

CHAP. II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requirerh them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him: 12 declaring withall why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy successe which God gave to his preaching in all places.

But I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part that I may not be charged you all.

Or, censure.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this: punishment, which was inflicted on many.

7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, & comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you, that ye would confirm your love towards him.

9 For in this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it, in the person of Christ;

Do we begin again to commend our selves? need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 We are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 For as much as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward.

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves to think any thing as of our selves: but our sufficiency is of God.

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life.

Or, quickeneth.

7 But if the ministration of death written, and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away:

8 how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly Or, boldly.

Or, in the sight.

152

steadfastly look to the end of that which is ad-

14 But their mindes were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament: which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all with open face, beholding as in a glasse the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory: even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

¶ Or, of the Lord the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithfull diligence in preaching the gospel, 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same, did redound to the praise of Gods power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostles own eternall glory.

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy we faint not.

† Gr. shame.

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending our selves to every mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the mindes of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

¶ Or, not altogether with our helper means.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body, the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

¶ Phil. 1:6.

13 We having the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, "I believed, and therefore have I spoken": we also believe, and therefore speak, 14 Knowing, that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a farre more exceeding and eternall weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen, are eternall.

CHAP. V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortall glory, 9 and in expectation of it, and of the generall judgement, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, 12 not that he may therein boast of himself, 14 but as one that having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternall in the heavens.

2 For in this we groane earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.

3 If so be that bring clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groane, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self same thing, is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alwayes confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we will labour, that whether present or absent we may be accepted of him.

¶ Or, endeavour.

10 For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not our selves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be besides our selves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

† Gr. in the face.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new.

¶ Or, let him be re.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation,

10 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sinne for us, who knew no sinne; that he might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

That he hath approved himself a faithfull minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of afflictions and disgraces for the gospel, 10 Of which he speaketh the more boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them: 13 and he expecteth the like affection from them again: 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollution of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

W^e then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain:

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness, on the right hand, and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true:

9 As unknown, and yet well known: as dying, and behold, we live: as chastened, and not killed:

10 As sorrowfull, yet alway rejoicing: as poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged, 12 We are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged:

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth, with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you.

1 He proceedeth in exhorting them to pursue of life, 2 and to bear him like affection as he doth to them. 3 Whereof, lest he might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions, by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their loving-kindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boasting of them.

H^aving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my gloying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyfull in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming onely, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent minde toward me, to that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry † after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

† Or, according to God.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge: in all things ye have approved your selves to be clean in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we speak all things to you in truth, even to our boasting which I made before Titus is found a truth.

15 And his † inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

† Or, bowels.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 We exhorte them up to a libeall contribution for the poore, first at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by commendation of their former forwardnesse, 9 by the example of Christ, 14 and by the spiritual profit that shall redound to themselves thereby: 16 commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, and those other brethren, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation were purposely come to them for this businesse.

Macober brethren, we doe you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:

2 Now that in a great triall of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I bear record) yea and beyond their power they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as ye abound in every thing, in faith, in utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poore; that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice, for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not onely to do, but also to be forward a yeare ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readinesse to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality: that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality.

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed, he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel, throughout all the churches:

19 And not that onely, but who was also chosen of the churches to travell with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your readiness of minde.

20 Nothing this, that no man should blame us in this abundance, which is administered by 21 Pointing for honest things, not onely in the sight of the Lord, but in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner, and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glorie of Christ.

24 And therefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardnesse, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand. 2 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountifull almes, as being but a kinde of sowing of seed, to which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgiving, unto God.

For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardnesse of your minde, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a yeare ago, and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that, as I said, ye may be ready.

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your t contribution, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, not of covetousnesse.

6 But this, I say, the which somewhat sparingly, shall reap sparingly: and he which loveth bountifully, shall reap bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purpoeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound towards you, that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad: he hath given to the poore: his righteousness remaineth for ever.)

10 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness.)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifullnesse, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service, not onely supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God.

13 And this by the experiment of this ministry, they glorifie God for your possessed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men:

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

CHAP. XI.

865

Against the false apostles, who disguised the weakness of his person and earthly presence, he sets out the spiritual might and authoritie, with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 7 assuring them that in his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent: 11 and with all exhorting them for teaching one themselves beyond their compasse, and warning themselves into other mens labours.

1 One of his jealousie over the Corinthians, who seeme to make more account of the false apostles, then of him, he sheweth into a forced commendation of himselfe, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and winning any their charge, 11 shewing that he was not inferior to these deservfull workers, in any legall perspective; 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kinde of suffering; for his ministry, farre superiour.

NOW I thank my self before you, by the meeknesse and gentlenesse of Christ, who in presence am hale among you, but being absent am whole towards you.

2 But I desire you, that I may not be holden I am perfect, with that confidence wherewith I think to be hold against some which think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holdes.)

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth it self against the knowledges of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ:

6 And having in a readinesse to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance, if any man trust to himselfe, that he is of Christ, let him of himselfe think this againe, that as he is of Christ, even so he is of us.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, (which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for our destruction) I should not be ashamed.

9 What I may boast there as if I would terrifie you by letters.

10 For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one thinke this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we also be when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selves of the number, or compare our selves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves amongst themselves, they are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule, which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we reach not our selves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come ye farre as to you also, for preaching the gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other mens labours, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth let him glorie in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himselfe is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

WANTS to God you could bear with me a little in my folly, and indeed I bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy, for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your mindes should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if he receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge, but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches taking wages of them to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I have kept my self from being burdensome unto you, and so will I still.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, I no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 And therefore because I have you more known,

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that therein they glory: they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitfull workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 Any no marvel, for Satan himselfe is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say againe, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool I receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

17 What which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves are wise.

20 For ye suffer it a man hitting you with a backe, if a man wrong you, if a man wrong you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak: howbeit, whereinsoever any is bold, I speak foolishly, I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I: are they Egyptians? so am I: are they the seed of Abraham?

23 Are they ministers of Christ? I speak as a fool, I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prisons more frequent: in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I fourty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck: a night and a day I have been in the deep.

26 In journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own counsellors, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 Yet so is weak, and I am not weak: who is offended, and I burn not:

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king, kept the city of the Damascus with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me.

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelation, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities. 11 Maiming them for saving him to this vain boasting. 14 He permiteth to compare them again: but yet altogether in the affliction of a father, 20 although he sheweth he shall so his grief for many offenders, and publisheth disorder there:

It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

I know a man in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth):

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory, yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me:

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure, through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying, ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you; for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you, though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I will not burden you: never, the less being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them where I sent unto you?

18 I beseech Christ, and with him I swear a troth: my Christ make a gain of you? I wishken be not in the least spirit walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think you that we exalt our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ that we do all things purely beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest when I come I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults, 21 And lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, whereas I shall bewail many which have turned already, and have not repented of their unbelief, and fornication, and lasciviousness which ever have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

He disavoucheth strength, and the power of his apostleship of any ostentatious shew: 5, and adviseth them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to reformation of their sinners before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

This is the third time I am coming to you in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak; yet shall we live with him by the power of God towards you.

5 Examining your selves, whether ye be in the faith.

faith: prove your own selves: knowing that your own selves, God that Jesus Christ is in you, will not be reprobat.

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are torak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, when your persecution.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present, I should use harshness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be patient of good comfort, be of one mind. Live in peace, and the God of love & peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle, to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

6 He wondereth, that they have so soon left him and the gospel, & have accused those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of man, but of God. 12 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAUL, an apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead.

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia.

3 Grace be to you and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 But to give thanks for our times, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God, and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever & ever. Amen.

6 I marvel, that ye are so soon removed from him that call you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel.

7 And such is not another, but there be some that trouble you, & would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though I be, as yet, an angel from heaven, I preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we have said before, so say I now again. If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that we have preached, let him be accursed.

10 For as I have said many times, so say I now again, I should not be the servant of men.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in times past, in the Jewish religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and sought to destroy it:

14 And was often in the Jewish religion, above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 And when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers womb, and called me by his grace.

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen: immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem, to them which were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem, to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea, which were in Christ.

23 But they had heard only, What he would do in times past, now preached the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth what he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: and that Titus was not circumcised.

2 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

3 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

4 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

5 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

6 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

7 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

8 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

9 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

10 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

11 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

12 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

13 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

14 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

15 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

16 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

17 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

18 And that he suffered Peter, and sold him to the law.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor: the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

C H A P. II.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law. 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And that he forewarn by many reasons.

O Galatians, I have hard brethren say, that you should not obey the crucified Jesus: yet Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 Tell me only would I learn of you, Brethren, ye the Gentiles by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain, if ye be yet in vain.

5 Is therefore that your manner to you the Gospel, and yet suffer ministers among you, which be of the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, the just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith; but, the man that doth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; though it be but a mans covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man dishonoureth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to thee, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our school-master to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Jesus Christ.

27 For as many of you as have been baptised into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. III.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 2 But Christ freed us from the law: 3 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 4 He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them, 22. and sheweth that we are the sonnes of Abraham by the free-woman.

NOW I say, that the heir, as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all.

2 But is under tutors and governors, untill the time appointed of the father.

3 When so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a sonne: and if a sonne, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit, when ye know not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggerly elements, wherunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe dayes, and monthes, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Wherein, I desire you, be as I am; for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 I desire is then the blessedness ye spake of: for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected alwayes in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice, for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman, was born after the flesh: but he of the free-woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and is answered to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, * Rejoyce thou barren that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children then the which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? * Cast out the bond-woman and her sonne: for the sonne of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the sonne of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their libertie, 3 and not to observe circumcision: 13 but rather love, which is the summe of the law. 19 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit, 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did gain well, I who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you though the Law, that you will be none otherwise minded; but he that troubledt you, shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross scaled.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; onely use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: * Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh, and these are contrary the one to the other, that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness.

20 Envy, wrath, strife, emulation, drunkenness, and such like, which will fulfill the lust of the flesh.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Against which there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs, have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath sinned, 2 and to bear one anothers burden, 3 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well-doing. 12 He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision, 14 He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

15 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, by which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one anothers burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Be ye also large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised, keep the law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome:

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle, to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After salutation, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of mans salvation. 12 And because the bright of this mystrie cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge and 20 possession thereof in Christ.

1 PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will:

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sinnes, according to the riches of his grace,

8 wherein he hath abounded towards us in all wisdom and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the mystrie of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, & love unto all the saints,

16 Ceale not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him:

18 The 18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened: that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints:

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power:

20 Which he wrought in Christ when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Farre above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not onely in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

1 By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are by grace, 10 he declareth that we are made for good works; and 13 being brought neare by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles, and 12 foreriners in time past, but as 19 citizens with the saints, and the family of God.

And you hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and finnes.

2 And herein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the aire, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 When we were dead in finnes hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness towards us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of your selves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast:

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh made by hands, 12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the common-wealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were farre off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us:

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmities, even the law of commandments, contained in ordinances, for to unite in himself, of twain, one new man, in making peace.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmities thereby:

17 And came, & preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For though him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone.

21 In whom all the building skilfully framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom you also are built together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation: 8 and to him was that grace given, that 9 he should preach it. 13 He deserveth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth 19 that they may perceive the great love of Christ towards them.

For this cause, I beseech the sufferer of Jesus Christ for you.

2 If ye have heard of the election of the grace of God, which was given unto me, that I should preach it:

3 Now that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, (as I wrote before in few words,

4 Wherby when ye reade ye may understand my knowledge in the mystrie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sonnes of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles & prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

9 And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystrie, which from the beginning of the world, hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the church the manifold wisdoms of God.

11 According to the eternall purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have holiness and accept with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I beseech my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might, by his Spirit in the inner man:

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all sanctu what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

† Gr. of the might of his power.

† Gr. the wills.

† Or, prepared.

† Or, in him; self.

† Or, a little before.

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, 21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end, Amen.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth to unity, 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that his church might be 13 edified and 16 grown up in Christ. 18 He calleth them from the impurities of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, and 29 corrupt communication.

¶ Or, in the Lord.

1 Therefore the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye, walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love.

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, when as ye are called in one hope of your calling.

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he said, * When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up farre above all heavens, that he might fill all things)

11 * And he gave some, apostles: and some, prophets: and some, evangelists: and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Sonne of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt supplieth, according to the effectuall working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.

17 As I say therefore and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind:

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 And ye being darkened, have given yourselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ:

21 It is to be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus.

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitfull lusts:

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind:

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness, and holiness.

¶ Or, holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry and sinne not, let not the sunne go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

¶ Or, to distribute.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good, to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

¶ Or, to edify profitably.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice.

32 And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God by Christ hath forgiven you.

1 After general exhortations to love, 2 to flee fornication, 4 and all uncleanness, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk wisely, & so be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his church.

But ye therefore followers of God, as dear Beloved.

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh Saints:

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

¶ Or, unbelieving.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them:

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all good, and, and righteousness, and truth.)

10 Knowing what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

¶ Or, discovered.

13 And all things that are reproved are made manifest.

manifested by the light: for whatsoever both make manifest, is light.

14 Or, he that is said, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

15 Col. 4. 5. "See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise."

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not ignorant, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit:

19 Speaking to your selves in psalms, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing, making melody in your heart to the Lord.

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God our Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Or, thus, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wife be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it:

26 That he might cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word.

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his own body, himself.

29 For no man ever hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ, and the church.

33 Nevertheless, for every one of you in particular, as love his wife even as himself, and the wife see that he reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

- 1 The duty of children toward their parents, 5 of servants toward their masters, 20 Of the life as a warfare, 22 not only of sin's flesh, but blood, but also spiritual enemies.
- 23 The complete armour of a Christian, 28 and how it ought to be used, 32 Tybicus is commended.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise.

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou shalt prosper.

mayest thou long on the night.

4 And ye fathers, forbear not your children to the Lord: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the Lord, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ:

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will, doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall be received of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, as the Lord has commanded: knowing that your Master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness:

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, whereby ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints.

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel:

20 For which I am an ambassador in chains: that I therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tybicus a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things.

22 Whom I have sent unto you by the same ship, that he might shew our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

THE

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

the apostle, to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He testifies his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his suffering. 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace. 12 He sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ, either by his life or death: 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 & to fortitude in perfection.

Raul and Timotheus the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Alwayes in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all, in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment:

10 That ye may I approve things that I are excellent, that ye may be sincere, and without offence till the day of Christ:

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel.

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places.

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 And that their notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose, I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is farre better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needfull for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith.

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel:

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake, 30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorts them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as light to the wicked world, 16 and comfort to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;

2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vain glory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, & given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should should bowe, of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth:

11 And that euery tongue should confesse, that Iesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 And therefore my beloved, as ye haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence: woos out your owne salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings, and disputings:

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.

Or, More over.

19 But I trust in the Lord Iesus, to send Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

Or, so desire vnto me,

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for you state.

21 For all seek their owne, not the things which are Iesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a sonne with the father, he hath serued with me in the gospel.

23 Whom therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour, and fellow-labourer, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh vnto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrowed upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the lesse sorrowfull.

Or, honour such

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh vnto death, not regarding his life to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause then they, to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and losse, to gain Christ and his righteousness. 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the wayes of carnall Christians.

Finally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of euill workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more.

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin: an Hebrew of the Hebrewes: as touching the law, a Pharisee:

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church, touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted losse for Christ.

8 Yea doubtlesse, and I count all things but losse, for the excellencie of the knowledge of Christ Iesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the losse of all things, and do count them but dung that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine owne righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death, 11 If by any means I might attain vnto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behinde, and reaching forth vnto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as are perfect be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal vnto you;

16 Nevertheless, whereto we haue already attained, let vs walk by the same rule, let vs minde the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye haue us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I haue told you often, and now tell you again, weeping, that they are the enemies of the crosse of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who minde earthly things.)

20 For our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Iesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able vnto subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. III.

1 From particular admissions 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 7 shewing how he rejoyced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his owne wants, as for the grace of God in them: 19 and so be concluded with prayer and salutation.

Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

1 I beseech Onesimus, and beseech Onesime, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
2 And I beseech thee also, tell yee-fellows, betwixt those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

3 Rejoyce in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoyce.

4 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

5 Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, for your requests be made known unto God.

6 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

7 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

8 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

9 Now I beseech you in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me | hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

10 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

11 I know how both to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

12 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

13 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

14 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

15 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

16 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

17 But I have all, and abound, I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

18 For my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

19 Now to God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

20 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus: the brethren which are with me greet you.

21 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cæsars household.

22 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

23 It was written to the Philippians from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

Or, I have received all.

Or, venerable,

Or, is received,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle, to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After salvation be thank God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphroditus, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ, 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ, and commendeth his own ministration.

1 And an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother.

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse, grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying alwayes for you:

4 Whence we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints;

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, wherof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel:

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it hath also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphroditus our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who also declared unto you your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom & spiritual understanding.

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:

11 Strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness:

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sinnes:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulness dwell,

Or, the source of his love,

1 Cor. 8. 6. John 1. 3.

Or, among all.

20 And

How the gospel was preached Chap. i. and ii. Paul's love to the Thessalonians.

279

1. That ye have continued in all that be written in the scriptures.

2. For ye have continued in the love of the Lord, not only in words, but in deeds, but also in every place your faith in God-much is spread abroad, in that we write not to speak any thing.

3. For ye yourselves know of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.

4. And to wait for his Sonnet from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it. 1. A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

1. For ye yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2. But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3. For our reputation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile.

4. But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even to we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5. For neither at any time unto us flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness, God is witness.

6. For of men thought we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7. But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children.

8. So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have bestowed unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10. We are weak, and we are also, howbeit, and justly, and unblameably we besought our selves among you that believe.

11. As you know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you, (as fathers cherish their children)

12. That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13. For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15. And do both kill the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us: and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sinnes alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

1. That we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in person, not in heart, comforted the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

2. And therefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again: but Satan hindered us.

3. For light is our hope, of joy, of glory of glory: yet not when ye in the patience of our Lord Jesus Christ as his coming.

4. For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

1. S. Paul testifies his great love to the Thessalonians: partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoicing in their well doing: 10. and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

1. Wherefore when we could no longer bear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone:

2. And sent Timothy our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3. That our men should be moved by their afflictions: for your letters know that we are appointed thereunto.

4. For hereby when we were with you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5. For this cause when I could no longer bear, I sent to know your faith, lest somehow the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6. But now when Timothy came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7. Therefore, brethren, we were comforted exceedingly you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8. For now we live, if ye have faith in the Lord.

9. For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your faith before our Lord?

10. Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith:

11. Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way unto you.

12. And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

13. To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 6. to live soberly and justly, 9. to love one another, 11. and quietly to follow their own business: 13. and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 17. And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

1. Christenase then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye

1. Be not deceived if ye should suppose that ye have not sinned. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

2. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication.

3. That every one of you should know how to possesse his vessel in sanctification and honour: not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God.

4. That no man go beyond and so defraude his brother in any matter, because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

5. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

6. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

7. But of touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

8. And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more.

9. And that ye study to be quiet, and to be your own husbands, as we commanded you.

10. That ye may learn how to behave yourselves that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

11. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye should be like them which are without Christ.

12. For if we believe that Jesus hath, and yet again, such in whom and which sleep in Jesus, how God bring with him.

13. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

14. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

15. Then we which are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

16. Wherefore comfort one another with their words.

CHAP. V.

1. We proceed in the former description of Christs coming in our coming, and shall shew presently, 23. and so conclude the epistle.

2. Be of the same mind and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

3. For your selves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

4. For when they shall say, Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child: and they shall not escape.

5. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

6. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

7. Therefore let us not sleep as do others: but let us watch and be sober.

8. For they that sleep, sleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

9. But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

10. For God hath not appointed us to wrath: but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ.

11. Who he died for us, that together we might as sleep, we should live together with him.

12. Wherefore comfort one another, brethren, as ye also have done.

13. And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you.

14. And to esteem them very highly in love for their works sake. And be at peace among your selves.

15. Now we beseech you, brethren, to learn of them that are patiently, comfort the feeble-minded, say unto the weak, be patient towards all men.

16. For that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

17. Rejoice evermore.

18. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19. Quench not the Spirit.

20. Despise not the word.

21. For if ye shall do these things, ye shall never fall: and ye shall have much fruit, and ye shall be loved by all that hear you.

22. Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23. And the mercies of God our Father, through Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen.

24. Faithfull is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25. Wherefore pray for us.

26. Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

27. I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

THE

THE SECOND EPISTLE of PAUL the Apostle, to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

I P. Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience: 21 and sheweth all such divers reasons for the comforting of them in persécution, whereas the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgement of God.

Paul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ;

Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth.

4 So that we our selves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persécutions and tribulations that ye endure.

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer.

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you: 7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 And therefore alid we pray alwayes for you; that our God would I count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power.

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

I He willeth them to continue steadfast in the truth received, 3 forasmuch that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of Antichrist, before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

1 That ye be not soon shaken in minde, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except these come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition:

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, saying himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what I withheld, that might be revealed in his time.

7 Now the mystery of iniquity hath already wrought: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the blast of his word, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness, in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned, who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth, 14 And because he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, hath given us everlasting consolation, and good hope through his Son, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 to testify what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to keep silence, and to company, 6 And last of all, concludeth with prayer and salutation.

Finally brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you.

2 And that we may be delivered from every unrighteous and wicked man: for all these things we have said.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and shall do things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the love of his Son Jesus Christ, who hath loved us, and himself.

The use and end of the law. I. Timothie. Hold faith and a good conscience.

10. Timothie, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
 7 For your selves know how ye might to follow us, for we behaved not our selves dishonestly among you.
 8 Neither did we eat any mans bread for nought: but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.
 9 Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an example unto you to follow us.
 10 For when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
 11 For we heare that there are some which walk among you idly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies.
 12 Now them that are such we command, and that by our Lord Jesus Christ, that they quit themselves they work, and eat their own bread.

 13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.
 14 And if any man obey not our words by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
 15 Per count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
 16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace alwayes, by all means. The Lord be with you all.
 17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE of PAUL the Apostle, to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

Timothie is put in minde of the charge which was given unto him by Paul, at his going to Macedonia.
 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Pauls calling to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;
 2 Unto Timothie, my own sonne in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine.

4 Neither give heed to fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather then edifying, which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some, having swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for slaves, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine.

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me: for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry.

13 Which was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acception, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, some Timothie, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest warre a good warfare:

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience, which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck.

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired.

12 They are not permitted to teach. 15 They shall be saved notwithstanding the testimonies of Gods wrath in child-birth, if they continue in faith.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men:

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour:

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one medi-

Or, desire

Or, eminent place

Or, at: si-mony.

four between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. 6 And he gave himself a ransom for all, to be crucified in his time.

7 And because I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men may every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

Or, pleased.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefast-ness and sobriety: not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if she continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

New bishops and deacons, and their wives should be qualified, 14 and to what end S. Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless; the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

Or, modest.

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, nor cov-etous;

Or, not ready to quarrell and offer wrong, as one in wine.

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity.

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

Or, one newly come to the faith.

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Whereof he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre.

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proven; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Worn to must their wives be grave, not flatterers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

Or, ministred.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that they may not know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mysterie of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, et-ernalized up into glory.

Or, say.

CHAP. IV.

He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils:

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving;

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast astained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little, but god-liness is profitable unto all things, having the promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

Or, for a little time.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation:

10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those who believe.

11 These things command us to love.

12 Let no man despise thy words; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading in exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things, and be thou holily in them, that thy working may be full of fruit.

16 Take heed unto the self, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

Rules to be observed in regarding: 2 Of bishops. 3 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timotheus health. 24 When mens sinnes go before unto judgement, how they do follow after.

Rebuke not an elder, but as father him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows truly indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

2 How he that is a widower in Christ, and beloved, dwelleth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

3 But he that loveth in pleasure, is dead while he liveth.

4 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

5 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

6 Let not a widower be taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man.

7 Well reported of for good works, if he have brought up children, if he have lodged strangers, if he have washed the saints feet, if he have relieved the afflicted, if he have diligently followed every good work.

8 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry:

9 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

10 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

11 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary, to speak reproachfully.

12 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

13 If any man or woman that desireth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

14 Let the elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

15 For the scripture saith, * Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, * The labourer is worthy of his reward.

16 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

17 When that thou shalt rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

18 Charge them before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that they observe these things, without preferring one before another, being nothing by partiality.

19 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sinnes, keep thy self pure.

20 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.

21 Some men have turned aside before thee, going desire to judgement: and some men they follow after.

22 I testify also the good works of some are manifest beforeward, and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of the duty of servants. 2 Not to have fellowship with un-forged teachers. 3 Godliness is great gain: 4 and love of money the root of all evil. 5 What Timothy was charged what to follow, 17 and whereof to admonish the rich. 20 To keep the purity of the doctrine, and to avoid profane jestings.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honour; that the name of God, and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness:

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but boasting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmises,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw to the left.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil, which while some coveted after, they have been led from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things: and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession.

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unshakable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords:

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate:

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science, falsely so called:

21 Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Where be with thee. Amen.

18 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, and here he is the master; and he parts into every good work.

19 See also righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

20 These shall save him, who have faith in the grace of God.

21 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach,

23 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He that knows this, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unlearned, having the form of godliness, but they deny the power thereof.

Or, make laws.

3 These shall continue in unbelief, and shall be without fruit, unprofitable, and contrary to the word of the Lord.

4 They shall be without love, without knowledge, without temperance, without godliness.

5 They shall be without love, without knowledge, without temperance, without godliness.

6 They shall be without love, without knowledge, without temperance, without godliness.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAP. I.

1 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 2 How they that are to be chosen ministers, ought to be qualified.
11 The number of civil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

Paul a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is after god-liness:

Or, for.

2 In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandments of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus mine own kinsman after the common faith, grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Or, left undone.

5 For this came I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accursed of riot or unruly.

* 1. Tim. 3.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the first-born of God: not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no fighter, not given to filthy luxury.

Or, good things.

Or, in teaching.

8 But a laborer of holiness, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate,

9 holding fast the faithful word, that he hath been taught, that he may be able to sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness I intend: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled, & unbelieving, is nothing pure: but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

Or, void of judgement.

16 They profess that they know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work repprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience.

Or, vigilant.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not a false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

Or, holy was men.

Or, make bates.

Or, wife.

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers of home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

Or, discreet.

7 In all things shewing thy self a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncompuncte, gravity, sincerity,

8 sound speech that cannot be condemned, that he that is of the contrary part may be ashuamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters; and to please them well in all things, not to the eye, but to the Lord;

Or, gaining.

10 that ye may please him, who is the Lord of your masters: Christ,

11 for the grace of God that bringeth salution, hath appeared to all men,

Or, that bringeth salvation to all men, hath appeared.

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present world:

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach. 10 He is warned also to reject obstinate heretics: 23 which done, he approacheth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him, and so concludeth.

Put them in mind to be subject to principal-ties and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all lowliness unto all men.

3 For we our selves also were sometime soliss, disobedient, rebellious, following when lusts and pleasures, living in malice & envy, hateful and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

Or, pitie.

5 that by works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his merrie he saved us by the washing of regeneration, & renewing of the holy Ghost:

6 which he sheweth on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Or, richly.

7 That being justified by his grace, we should live soberly according to the hope of eternal life.

to receive Onesimus.

I have been much troubled, that I have long have laboured in God, and he be careful to maintain good things: that things are and profitable unto men.

9 But unto foolish questions, and geneologies, and contentions, and strivings about the law, for they are unprofitable and vain.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our fellow-labourer, unto the beloved Philemon, the angel of love, and of peace, and of good will,
and of the church in the house.

1 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

3 because of the love, and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all saints.

4 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Christ Jesus.

5 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the brethren of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

6 Therefore, though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoin thee that which is comment.

7 For I love thee, I rather desired thee, having such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

8 I desire thee for my fellow Onesimus, whom I have begotten in the house.

9 As such in love, Paul, him to thee unjustly steal: but now profitable to thee and to me.

10 And now I have sent again: thou therefore accept him that is mine, whom I have begotten.

11 And if he hath wronged thee in any manner, or if he hath defrauded thee in any thing, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee that he will do so.

12 Wherefore, if thou wilt, send him back to me, and I will repay thee for all.

13 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

14 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

15 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

16 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

17 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

18 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

19 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

20 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

21 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

22 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

23 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

24 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

25 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

13 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

14 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

15 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

16 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

17 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

18 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

19 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

20 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

21 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

22 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

23 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

24 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

25 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

26 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

27 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

28 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

29 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

30 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

31 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

32 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

33 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

34 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

35 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

36 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

37 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

38 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

39 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

40 I have written unto thee in few words,
and I have written unto thee in few words.

THE

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle, to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

Christ in the left time; coming to us from the Father, as he preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

COn who at sundry times, and in divers manners, spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these last dayes spoken unto us by his Sonne; whom he hath appointed heire of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

3 Who being the brightnesse of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sinnes, sat down on the right hand of the infinite on high:

4 Being made so much better then the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Sonne, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Sonne?

6 And again, when he singeth in the first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, & his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Sonne he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever, a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God even the God hath exalted thee above the angels, as he hath said above the fellows.

10 And, Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest: and they shall be changed, but thou shalt be the same, and thy years shall not fail.

12 And as a desire thou hast them up, and they shall be changed, but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 And to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 And yet we see all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation.

CHAP. II.

We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, and that because he condescended to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward:

3 How shall we escape if we neglect to great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

4 God also bearing their testimony, both with signes and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his own will:

jection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But not in a certain place testifies, saying, That is man that thou art mindful of him:

7 Thou madest him a little lower then the angels, thou crownedst him with glory & honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower then the angels; for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in blessing many, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctified, and they who are sanctified, are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren.

12 Saying, I will declare the name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing spirit unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him: and again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that hath the power of death, that is, the devil:

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their life time subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the form of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things he became like unto his brethren, that he might be a mercifull and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people:

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

Christ in more worship than Moses; therefore if he be loved us in time, we shall be more worship of him, than hard hearted Israel.

Wherefore holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and high priest of our profession, Jesus.

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, in as much as he who had builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man, but he that buildeth all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after:

6 But Christ as a Sonne over his own house, whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 And therefore as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye will hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.
11 So I swore in my wrath, † They shall not enter into my rest.
12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily while it is called, To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end.
15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For some when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of unbelief.

CHAP. III.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of Gods word. 14 By our high priest Jesus the Sonne of God, subject to infirmities, but not sine, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

1 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but † the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

2 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

3 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

4 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

5 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, mixed not in because of unbelief:

6 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time: as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

7 For if † Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterwards have spoken of another day.

8 Where remaineth therefore a † rest to the people of God.

9 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

10 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

11 For the word of God is quick, and power-full, and sharper then any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

12 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked, and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

13 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Sonne of God, let us hold fast our profession.

14 For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sinne.

15 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and finde grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviours priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reprov'd.

Every high priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himselfe also is compassed with infirmities.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, to offer himselfe, to offer for sinnes.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also, Christ glorified not himselfe, to be made an high priest: but he that said unto him, Thou art my Sonne, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the dayes of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard, † in that he feared:

8 Though he were a Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered:

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternall salvation unto all them that obey him.

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milke, † is unskilfull in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth, not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection, not not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,

Of the doctrine of unbelief, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement.

And this will he do, if God permit.

For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come;

If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

But that which beareth thorns and briers, is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

But beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed towards his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

And we desire, that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end.

That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, Saying, Surely, blessing, I will bless thee, and multiplying, I will multiply thee.

And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

For men verily curse by the greater, and an oath by confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath.

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

For which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil.

For which the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, and so farre more excellent then the priests of Aaron's order.

For this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also, king of Salem, which is, king of peace.

Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life: but made like unto the Sonne of God; abiding a priest continually.

Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the tithes.

And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

And here men that die receive tithes: but they be receiveth them, of whom it is witnesseth that he liveth.

And as I may say, Levi also who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

If therefore perfection were by the Levitical law, what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

And it is yet farre more evident for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest.

Where is made, not after the law of a carnall commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

For the law made nothing perfect; but the bringing in of a better hope did: by the which we draw nigh unto God.

And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest,

(For those priests were made without oath: but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, *Thou shalt stand and wait on me: Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.)

By to much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sinnes, and then for the peoples: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity: but the word of the oath which was since the law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for evermore.

CHAP.

Or, for.

† Or interpreted himself by an oath.

For he is made the bringer in.

For he is made the bringer in of the new testament.

For he is made the bringer in of the new testament.

† Or, without pedigree.

† Or person.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ, the Levitical priesthood of Aarons is abolished, 7 and the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

NOW of the things which he hath spoken, this is the summe: we have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the majesty in the heavens:

Or, of holy things.

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

Or, they are priests.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law.

5 And he hath unto the temple and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle. For he saith (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

Or, testimony.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, in how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah:

9 And according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, and I rejected them, not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old, that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, as being inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN briefly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy-seat: and of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 When Moses took these things, he went into the tabernacle, and the priests went outside into the first tabernacle accomplishing the service of them.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.

8 The holy Ghost thus signifying that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the then time present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience.

10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

Or, rites or ceremonies.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh, 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit, offered himself without spot to God, purge your consciences from dead works to serve the living God?

Or, fault.

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

Or, be brought in.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

Or, purified.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people.

Or, purple.

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Whereupon, he sprinkled blood both upon the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with blood, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 And yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place, every year with blood of others:

26 For this must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sins by the sacrifice of himself.

The fruits of faith in the fathers. Hebrews. An exhortation to faith, &c.

that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Or, being wary,

7 By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, as as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

Or, record-of faith,

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that country, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his onely begotten sonne.

18 Of whom it was said, that in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

19 Accounting, that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and worshipped leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, and they not afraid of the kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses when he was come to forty years, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter:

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season:

26 Despising the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Although faith he kept the passover, and so passed through the Red Sea, he that destroyed the firstborn, he kept them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven daies.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them: that beleebred not, when she had received the spies with peace.

Or, that were disobedient,

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Sampson, and of Jephthah, of David also and Samuel, and of the prophets.

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection.

1. Mac. 74.

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings, and scourgings, yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skinnes, and goat-skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, tormented.

38 Of whom the world was not worthy: they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Or, beginner,

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 He have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sinne.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My sonne, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every sonne whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sonnes: for what sonne is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not sonnes.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

to for 10 For they desire for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Know no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness, unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 And therefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees.

Or, even,

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Or, fall from.

15 Looking diligently, lest any man fall of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled:

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Cain, who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

Or, way to change his minde,

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they that heard, intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded: and if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake.)

22 But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

Or, enrolled.

23 To the generall assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men, made perfect.

Or, testament

24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things then that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

26 And whose voice then shook the earth, but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

Or, may be shaken,

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 And therefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear.

Or, let us hold fast,

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

Divers admonitions, as to charity, &c. to honest life, 5 to avoid coverousness, 7 to regard Gods preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confesse Christ, 16 to give almes, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion

Let brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetfull to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being your selves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness: and be content with such things as ye have. For he hath said, * I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. * John. 1. 35

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which I have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the words of Gods whole faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

Or, are the guides.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat, which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burnt without the camp.

12 And therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctifie the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For we have here no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate forger not, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now to the God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 Make you perfect in every good work, to his will, I working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our brother Timothy is at liberty, with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the true love you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

Written to the Hebrews from Italy, by Timothy.

THE

THE GENERALL E PISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAP. I.

We are to rejoyce under the crosse, & to ask patience of God, 13 and in our trialls not to impute our weaknes or sinnes unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter, 26 otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

JAMES a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations,

3 knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him.

6 But hearken unto the voice, saying, Whither wish the water, and thither.

7 For let not man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree let rejoyce in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sunne is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is taken away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 When lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of light, with whom is no variablenesse, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthines, and uncleannes of naughtinesse, and receive with meeknesse the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But he ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass.

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whose looketh into the perfect law of libertie, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and hideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this manes religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unpolluted from the world.

CHAP. II.

It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor, 13 rather we are to be loving and mercifull; 16 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 as of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man, in vile raiment:

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are you not then partiall to your selves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poore. Do not rich men oppress you, and despise you: before the judgement seat?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfill the royall law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sinne, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of libertie.

13 For he shall have judgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy, if he sheweth against judgement.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

Or, doing.

Or, Synagogue.

Or, well, or seemly.

Or, that.

Or, that law which said.

Or, glorified.

17 Exhortation as Rich that knoweth to be good, and doth it not; so bin it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

Wicked rich men are few. Gods vengeance. 7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job: 12 to forbear sinning: 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our severall faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

Go to now ye rich men, keep and hold fast your treasures that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered, and the dust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped treasure together for the last dayes.

4 Behold the hire of the labourers, which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cryeth against the cries of them which have reaped, are turned into the cries of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been mountaine ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord: behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, because he will be receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 I charge thee one against another, brethren, for, grone, or lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth before the door.

10 Take away from the people, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitiful and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sinnes, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confesse your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. Or, in his prayer;

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do erre from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

CHAP. I.

He blesteth God for his manifold spiritual graces, 10 showing that the salvation in Christ is no new, but a thing prophesied of old: 12 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation, so far as they are now born anew by the word of God.

Peter an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God, and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who by the power of God through faith into salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly joyce, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations.

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious then of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

8 Whom having not seen, ye love in whom ye now live by his blood, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have made diligent testimony, as concerning the things which are now prophesied of the grace that shall come unto you:

11 Searching diligently, ye may find the earnest desire of your souls, which was written by the prophets, when it said, Behold, I will raise up unto you Christ, and he shall purify unto you.

12 And when that was revealed, that ye might turn to yourselves, imitating the sufferings which are now written, that ye might be able to have peace with the Lord, and with the the elder: you, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

9 And how resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in you, brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus a faithful brother unto you, (as I suppose) I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth Marcus my sonne.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity: Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE generall of PETER.

CHAP. I.

- 1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of Gods graces,
- 5 he exhorted them by faith and good works, to make their calling sure: 13 whereby he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Sonne of God, by the eye-witness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father and the prophet.

Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord:

1 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and blessedness;

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue, and to knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance, and to meekness, and to patience, and to kindness, godliness;

7 And to goodness, faithfully kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity.

8 For these things be to you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren, nor unfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things, is blind, and cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 And therefore the better, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly, into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Therefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 For, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up, by putting you in remembrance:

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ John 21.18

15 Whereof, I will endeavour that you may be able after my decease, to have these things alwayes in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father, honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Sonne in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no man shall take the sentence of any mans error in pretension.

21 For the prophete cometh not in this time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the manner and punishment both of them and their followers: 9 from which the early shall be delivered, as also was our Saviour: 20 and more fully sheweth the manner of their profane and blasphemous sayings, which they may be the better known, and avoided.

But there were false teachers also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who secretly shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bringing upon themselves their own destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with false words make merchandise of you: to whose judgement now of a long time lieth hid, and their damnation standeth out.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them wayes, as I have copied, 1644.

into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement:

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly:

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly:

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despite || government, presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation || against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption,

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day: they despise they are and blessings, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children,

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the brute ass speaking with mans voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollution of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, then after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them:

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. II.

He affirmeth them of the certainty of Christs coming to judgement, against those persons who dispute against it.

8 warning the godly for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tempt to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistle:

This second epistle (beloved) I now write unto you in both which I stir up your pure mindes by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindfull of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth || standing out of the water, and in the || Gr. consisting.

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflood with water, perished.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgement, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand yeares as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise (as some men count slackness) but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conclamation and godliness,

12 Looking for, and || hastening unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat:

13 Whereby also the earth and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

14 Wherefore (beloved) seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you.

16 As also in all his epistles, spea-king in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Be therefore (beloved) seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

generall of J O H N.

CHAP. I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life by a communion with God: § to which we must adjoin holiness of life, so to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sinnes by Christ's death.

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, & our hands have handled of the word of life:

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Sonne Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth us from all sinne.

8 If we say that we have no sinne, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confesse our sinnes he is faithful, and just to forgive us our sinnes, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 He comforteth them against the sinnes of infirmities. 2 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments. 3 To love our brethren. 4 To not so love the world. 5 To walk between of sinners: from whom devils they shall be safe preserved by perseverance in faith and holiness of life.

M little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sinne not. And if any man sinne, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sinnes: and not ours only, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write unto you no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. †Gr. scandall.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his names sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth forever.

18 Little children, it is the last time, and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would not have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Whoso is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ, he is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Sonne, hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the beginning, shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you, concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, & is no lie, and thus as it hath taught you, remain in him.

Love one another.

I. John.

Try the spirits.

204

For know ye.

23 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doth righteousness, is born of him.

CHAP. III.

3 He declared the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEhold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

4 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it hath not yet appeared what we shall be: but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

5 And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

6 All who ever committed sinne, transgresseth also the law: for sinne is the transgression of the law.

7 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

8 Whofoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whofoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

9 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

10 He that committeth sinne, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Sonne of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

11 Whofoever is born of God, doth not commit sinne: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sinne, because he is born of God.

12 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whofoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

For commandment.

13 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

14 As for Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

15 Wherefore not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

16 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

17 Whofoever hateth his brother is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

18 Whereby perceive we the love of God, because he hath made his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

19 But who hath these things good, and loveth his brother, have need, and quicken up his bowels of compassion toward him, who dwelleth the love of God in him?

20 We little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

21 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall possess our hearts being him.

22 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

23 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

24 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

22 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Sonne Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholick faith: 9 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

BELOVED, beleve not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Whereby know ye the Spirit of God? every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereby ye have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Sonne into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Sonne to be the propitiation for our sinnes.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 So man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Whereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whofoever shall confess that Jesus is the Sonne of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and beleved the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Wherein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 As a manly, I love God, and surely his brother, is to a man: so he that loveth not his brother, † Gr. love with us.

107. per books.

ther whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

2 And these commandments have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments: 3 Which to the faithful are light, and not grievous: 9 Jesus is the Sonne of God, able to save us, 14 and to bear our prayers, which we make for our selves, and for others.

Whether believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 And so is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Sonne of God.

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ, not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Sonne.

10 He that believeth on the Sonne of God, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record that God hath given to us eternal life: and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life, and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Sonne of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he heare us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sinne not unto death. There is a sinne unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sinne, and there is a sinne not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Sonne of God is come, and hath given us an understanding that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Sonne Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep your selves from idols. Amen.

[Or, concerning him.]

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable matrone with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief: 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

The elder unto the elect lady, and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth: 2 For the truths sake which dwell in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Look to your selves, that ye lose not those things which we have laboured, but that ye receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that divideth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face: that our joy may be full.

13 The children of the elect sister greet thee. Amen.

THE

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality 7 to true preachers, 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

Or, truly.

Or, pray.

He elseth unto the welbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy then to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou dost faithfully whatsoever thou dost to thy brethren, and to strangers:

6 Which have born witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 And therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 And therefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth, paying against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbid-deth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth is self-yes, and we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not write ink and pen unto thee.

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

Or, mouth to mouth.

THE GENERALL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 12 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners, horrible punishment is prepared: 20 where as the godly by the assistance of the holy Spirit, and prayer to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

And the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needfull for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having labored the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, & speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not, but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 And unto them, for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gain-saying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, 15 To execute judgement upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having mens persons in admiration because of advantage.

Zechar. 14

Or, principal policy.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up your selves on your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 Keep your selves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even a garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Saviour be glory and majestie, dominion and power, now and ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION OF S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks.

7 The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majestie.

Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to passe; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Which bare record of the words of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the words of this prophesie, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seven churches in Asia, Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne.

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth: Unto him that loveth us, and washed us from our sinnes in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, & they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him: even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom, and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and what thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, & unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks.

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks, one like unto the Sonne of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and his hairs were white like wool as white as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire, 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven starres: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sunne shinning in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not, I am the first and the last.

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead: and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter.

20 The mysterie of the seven starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven starres are the angels of the seven churches: & the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels; that is, the ministers of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commanded, or found wanting in them.

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven starres in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil, and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars.

3 And hast thou, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, & hast not faileth.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left the first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him heare what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write, These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive,

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, he that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write, These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges, 13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satans seat is, and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write, These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass, 19 I know thy works, and charitie, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works, and the last to be more than the first.

20 Nevertheless, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezabel, which calleth her self a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak, I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (* And he shall rule them with a rod of iron: as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III

2 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatned if he do not repent. 8 The angel of the church of Philadelphia, 10 is approved for his diligence & patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold: 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the doors, and knocketh.

AND unto the angel of the church of Sardis write, These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars, I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchfull, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received, and heard, and hold fast, and repent. * If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come to thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the * book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write, These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan (which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie) behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith the Amen, dicea.

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold at that, habbing a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God, out of the angels hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth:
and there were voices, and thundings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood:

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died: and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great starre from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormwood, and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the starres, so as the third part of them was darkened: and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

1 He the sounding of the fifth angel, a starre falling from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomlesse pit. 2 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first two pest.
13 The sixth trumpet sounded. 14 Foure angels are loosed, that were bound.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a starre fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there came out a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne and the aere were darkened, by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power:

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but onely those men which have the seal of God in their fore-heads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those dayes shall men seek death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as if were breast-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battell.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were sting in their tails, and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 One was is past, and behold there cometh two woes more hereafter.

13 And the fifth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the foure angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the foure angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a yeare, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of sapphire, and of chalcidone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and chalcidone.

18 By these threes was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the chalcidone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold and silver, and brasse, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sunne, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little book open, and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever,

That is to say,
a destroyer.

ther, who created heaven and the things that therein are, and the earth and the things that therein are, and the sea and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystérie of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and altho as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAP. XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesie: 6 they have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. 8 They lie unburied. 11 and after three dayes and an half rise again. 14 The second wo is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

And there was given me a reed like unto a rod, and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple I leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two moneths.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes clothed in sackcloth.

4 They are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the dayes of their prophesie: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three dayes and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoyce over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two prophets mocked them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an half, the Spirit of life from God entered into them: and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same houre there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second wo is past, and behold, the third wo cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee the great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great, and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament, and there were lightnings, and voices, and thundings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sunne travails, 4 The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child: 6 when she was delivered she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail. 13 The dragon being cast down into the earth, persecuteth the woman.

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sunne, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve starres:

2 And the being with child, cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the starres of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And the dragon was wroth in heaven, and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels:

8 And prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God, day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Wherefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them; for to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the Devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place: where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman: that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make warre with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads, and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

10, names.

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

† Gr. slain.

3 And I saw one of his heads, as it were † wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make warre with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

10, to make warre.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make warre with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

* Matt. 26-52

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a lamb.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give † life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a † mark in their right hand, or in their forehead.

† Gr. to give.

17 And that no man might buy or sell save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Zion with his company: 6 an angel preacheth the gospel. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and punishing of the wicked. 20 The vintage and wine-press of the wrath of God.

And I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their organs.

3 And they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders, and no man could learn that song, but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these † were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

† Gr. were bought.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, in the heaven,

heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

⁷ Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him: for the hour of his judgement is come: * and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea and the fountains of waters.

⁸ And there followed another angel, saying, * Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

⁹ And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

¹⁰ The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture, into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone, in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

¹¹ And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. And they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

¹² Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

¹⁴ And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat, like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

¹⁵ And another angel came out of the temple crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, * Thust in thy sickle and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

¹⁶ And he that sat on the cloud, thust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷ And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle:

¹⁹ And the angel thust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine press of the wrath of God.

²⁰ And the wine press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

¹ The seven angels with the seven last plagues. ³ The song of them that overcome the beast. ⁷ The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

¹ And I saw another signs in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

² And I saw as it were a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

³ And they sing, * the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, * Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty, * just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

⁴ * Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name: for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgements are made manifest.

⁵ And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

⁶ And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

⁷ And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels, seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who lived for ever and ever.

⁸ And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

² The angels pour out of their vials full of wrath. ⁶ The plagues that follow thereupon. ¹⁵ Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

¹ And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go your ways and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

² And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

³ And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

⁴ And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood.

⁵ And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

⁶ For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are worthy.

⁷ And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

⁸ And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sunne, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

⁹ And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which had power over these plagues: and they repented not, to give him glory.

¹⁰ And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of darkness, and they gnawed their tongues for pain.

¹¹ And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And

Or, from henceforth, saith the Spirit, yea.

* Joel 3:13.

Or, died.

Or, burned.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof was taken up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air, and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings: and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

2, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 13 The punishment of the whore. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, I will shew unto thee the judgement of the great whore, that sitteth upon many waters:

2 Called upon the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads, and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ABYSSINIA, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF WHORES, AND HATEFUL OF GODS.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet: but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make warre with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they that are with him, are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart out of her. 9 The king of the earth, 11 with the merchants and mariners, lament over her. 30 The saints rejoice for the judgement of God upon her.

And after these things, I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

For her sinnes have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Rewards her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

* Isa. 47. 8.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her: when they shall see the smoke of her burning:

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mightiest city: for in one hour is thy judgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her: for no man buyeth her merchandise any more:

Or, sweet.

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyne wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of bhall, and iron, and marble,

Or, bodies.

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyl, and fine flayes, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and all souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls:

17 For in one hour to great riches is come to nought. And every ship-matter, and all the company in ships, and masters, and as many as trade by sea, stand afar off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness, for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipes, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the harp, organ, and of the pipe, shall be heard no more at all in thee: for the merchants were the great men of the earth: for by the sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lambe. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia, salvation, and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: and her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lambe. And he said unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

* Mat. 22. 14.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him: and he said unto me, * See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren, that have the testimony of Jesus, worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

* Chap. 22. 9.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called faithful and true, and in righteousness he doth judge and make warre.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself.

13 * And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood, and his name is called, The word of God.

* Isa. 63. 3.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth went a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his breast, & on his thigh a name written, * K I A O S O F K I N G S, A N D L O R D O F L O R D S.

* Chap. 19. 14.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sunne, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that flie in the midst of heaven, Come and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God:

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of them, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both small and great, both small and great.

19 And I saw the dead, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make battle against him that sat on the beast, and against his army.

20 And the death was taken and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the beast, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection: they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that, he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands, and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were fulfilled. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison.

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it: and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. 23 She needeth no sunne, the glory of God is her light. 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

And I saw a new heaven, & a new earth: * Isa. 65. 17. for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea. * 2. Pet. 3. 13.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. * Chap. 7. 17.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, * Rev. 21. 3. Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. * 2. Cor. 5. 17.

6 And he said unto me, It is done: * 1. John 1. 9. Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, * Chap. 1. 8. and 22. 13. I will give unto him that is thirsty, of the fountain of the water of life freely. * Isa. 55. 1.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my people.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, & at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city stood foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he mea-lured the cite with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs : the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

918

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper, and the cite was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third a chalcodonie, the fourth an emerald, 20 The fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth a topaz, the tenth a chrysoprasus, the eleventh a jacinth, the twelfth an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, every severall gate was of one pearl, and the street of the cite was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lambe, are the temple of it.

* Isa. 60. 19. 23 * And the cite had no need of the sunne, neither of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light thereof.

* Isa. 60. 3. 24 * And the nations of them which are saved, shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

* Isa. 60. 11. 25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambes book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 3 The light of the city of God is himself. 4 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God, and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 * And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sunne, for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reigne for ever and ever. * Chap. 22. 3.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophesie of this book. 8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, * See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. * Chap. 19. 10.

10 And he said unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophesie of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, * to give every man according as his work shall be. * Rom. 2. 6.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, * the beginning and the end, the first and the last. * Isa. 44. 4. and 44. 6.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel, to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. * Isa. 55. 1.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophesie of this book, * If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: * Deut. 4. 2. Prov. 30. 6.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy cite, and from the things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, Come Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
